WELCOME TO JUGOMARO

At Jugomaro Predator Park, we provide a safe haven for rescued and donated predators, offering them a second chance at life in a secure and caring environment. Situated on a sprawling 250-hectare reserve in the heart of South Africa's breathtaking wilderness.

The park is home to a variety of animals, including majestic big cats, wolves, and smaller predators.

Jugomaro is more than just a refuge, Jugomaro is a hub for wildlife conservation, education, and hands-on care. Our hands-on volunteer program gives passionate individuals the opportunity to play an active role in our mission. From feeding lions and caring for caracals to maintaining enclosures and supporting conservation efforts, your contribution directly impacts the well-being of our animals and the park's future.

At Jugomaro, you'll not only make a difference but also gain a deeper appreciation for wildlife and the natural world.

MEET SOME OF THE ANIMALS

X2 White Timbavati lions
X7 African Tawny lions

X 8 Bengal Tigers

X2 Siberian tigers

X2 Caracal

Jugomaro Predator Park is home to a diverse array of incredible wildlife, from majestic big cats like lions, tigers, and caracals to other species such as wolves. Each animal has its own story, many rescued or donated to find a safe and loving environment. Caring for these remarkable creatures is at the heart of everything we do.

WHY VOLUNTEER AT JUGOMARO?

Make a Real Impact: By volunteering, you play an active role in the care and well-being of rescued predators and other wildlife. Your efforts directly support conservation and education initiatives, helping protect these incredible animals for future generations.

Unique Wildlife Experience: Work closely with a variety of animals, from big cats like lions and tigers to smaller predators like caracals and wolves. Gain hands-on experience in their care and enrichment while enjoying the stunning landscapes of South Africa.

Personal Growth and Connections: Volunteering at Jugomaro offers the chance to develop valuable skills, form lifelong connections with like-minded individuals, and immerse yourself in a meaningful journey that contributes to a greater cause.

WHAT TO EXPECT DAY TO DAY

Daily Volunteer Activities:

As a Jugomaro volunteer, you'll contribute to the care of our animals and enhance the park experience through:

1. Animal Feeding: Prepare and distribute specialized diets for our wildlife.
2. Enrichment: Create activities that stimulate natural behaviors and mental well-being.
3. Behavior Observation: Monitor and record animal health and behaviors.
4. Habitat Maintenance: Keep enclosures clean, safe, and engaging.
5. Visitor Assistance: Welcome and guide visitors, enhancing their park experience.
6. Restaurant assistance: Some help may be needed in the restaurant or with cleaning, which supports daily operations and income generation.

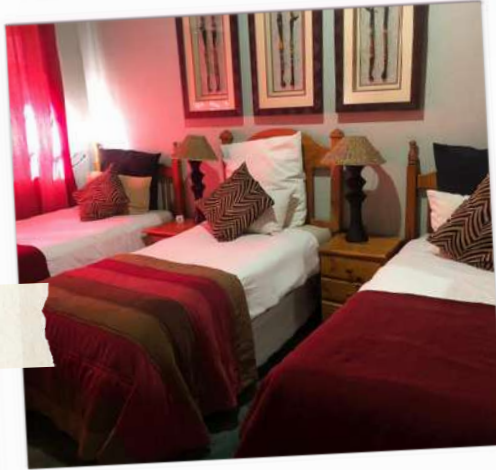

Every task supports the animals and furthers Jugomaro Predator Park's mission.
