

Board Member Biography

Karen Fulton

Karen Fulton has a distinguished background in organizational leadership, member services, and industry advocacy. She served as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Printing Industries Association of San Diego (PIASD), where she played a key role in supporting businesses through strategic programs, resource development, and member-focused initiatives. Her work in fostering collaboration and providing essential services to professionals has made a lasting impact on the industry.

Karen brings a wealth of experience in navigating complex organizational challenges, implementing effective governance structures, and ensuring that businesses and individuals have access to the resources they need to succeed. Her expertise in association management, policy development, and community engagement makes her a valuable asset to IT Advocates.

With a deep understanding of how technology can bridge gaps and create opportunities, Karen is committed to helping IT Advocates fulfill its mission of empowering seniors through digital accessibility and education. Her insights into strategic planning, operational efficiency, and nonprofit governance will help guide IT Advocates in creating sustainable and impactful programs for the community.