Synopsis:

Inspired by a real event and featuring the Grammy-nominated score by Steven Martin and Edie Brickell, Broadway's Bright Star tells a sweeping tale of love and redemption set against the rich backdrop of the American South in the 1920s and '40s. When literary editor Alice Murphy meets a young soldier just home from World War II, he awakens her longing for the child she once lost. Haunted by their unique connection, Alice sets out on a journey to understand her past – and what she finds has the power to transform both of their lives. Propelled by an ensemble of onstage musicians and dancers, the story unfolds as a rich tapestry of deep emotion, beautiful melodies and powerfully moving performances. An uplifting theatrical journey that holds you tight in its grasp, Bright Star is as refreshingly genuine as it is daringly hopeful.

The music of Bright Star is pure Bluegrass, yet the show appeals to audiences that would not have expected to enjoy this musical genre. Songs include “If You Knew My Story,” “Way Back in the Day,” “What Could Be Better,” “Sun is Gonna Shine,” and “At Long Last.”

Woodside Musical Theatre’s Bright Star:

Bay Area director, choreographer and actor Gary Stanford, Jr., is returning to direct his third WMT Broadway musical at the beautiful Woodside High School Performing Arts Center. His previous directorial efforts for WMT include Ragtime (2016) and Annie (2017).

When asked about the Bright Star experience, he replied, “imagine yourself immersed in a live band performance of your favorite Bluegrass Hits featuring some of your favorite Bay Area vocalists. Now, imagine a compelling, engaging story is added into the mix. That is probably the best way to describe the powerful experience of seeing Bright Star, the musical. Bluegrass is one of the least-represented in the historical great American music standards. Featuring a cast of 28 top-tier bay area actors, WMT’s Bright Star cast performs dance styles of the 1920s and 1940s, including Charleston, Swing and Country-Western step dancing from North Carolina. The exquisite musical soundtrack features some serious toe-tapping, hand clapping, bluegrass music. It’s a feel-good story for the entire family.”

Stanford will be supported in bringing this vision to the stage with Vocal Direction by Renée Lubin, Musical Direction by Brett Strader, Scenic and Lighting Design by Don Coluzzi, and Costume Design by Jo-Ann Birdsall.

Starring in the leading roles are Katherine Bonn as “Alice Murphy”, Jack Bloome as “Jimmy Ray” and Jason Mooney as “Billy”. Rounding out the leading characters are Michele Schroeder as “Margo”, Jason Engleman as “Daddy Murphy”, John Tondino as “Daddy Cane”, and D’Artagnan Riviera as “Mayor Dobbs”. A very talented group of local and regional actors complete the cast and ensemble.

Woodside Musical Theatre is a nonprofit community theater organization with the goal of promoting the theatrical arts for the mid-peninsula of the San Francisco Bay Area and the surrounding area. WMT has been entertaining audiences since 1957 and currently offers one major Broadway musical each year.
