

Jim Holden Intro

Jim Holden is the author of "It happened in Marin". He will tell us some of Marin's many True Stories. A native of St. Louis, Jim came West and graduated from Stanford University. He then earned his Law Degree from Stanford Law School and practiced law for many years in San Francisco and Marin. For more than 50 years, Jim has lived in Marin County, hiking its trails, loving its spirit and becoming an avid student of its unique history, culture and lore. Now retired, Jim and his wife Mary live in Smith Ranch Homes in San Rafael.
