

A COMMUNAL PRAYER FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS

Creator God,
our collective hearts are filled with anxiety and fear.
And sometimes, God, this makes us feel alone.
Remind us that you are with us.
Draw us close, quiet our minds, and calm our hearts.
We believe; help our unbelief.

Compassionate God,
we cannot understand all the suffering in the world.
We commit our hearts to you, and we will listen to your voice.
Draw us close, quiet our minds, and calm our hearts.
We believe; help our unbelief.

Generous God,
give us the courage to persistently act in love.
Teach us to be your gentle hands which work for justice and good.
Draw us close, quiet our minds, and calm our hearts.
We believe, help our unbelief.

Loving Creator,
in times of turmoil, help us see
that love and acceptance others is our path forward.
Draw us close, quiet our minds, and calm our hearts.
We believe; help our unbelief.

Help us to trust in love.
One day at a time.
One breath at a time.
We ask all these things in faith.
Amen.
