Use a highlighter to mark your readings. Use post-it tabs to mark your place in your bible.

Psalm 119:1-176 divided in 8 parts starting with Aleph and ending in Tau

Read the Psalm/Proverb Daily in the morning. Start with the Day of the month.

Start your Psalm/Proverb Daily reading following the Day of the week

Example: January 1- Psalm 1, Proverb 1, Aleph (Psalm 119:1-8)

February 1- Psalm 32, Proverb 1, Yod (Psalm 119:73-80)

March 1, Psalm 57 (you may be behind-which is okay) Proverb 1, Ayin (Psalm 119:121-128)

Don't stress if there is a long Psalm, you can read half one day and the next the other day. Focus on the daily Proverb and the Hebrew Letter Day. Use a post it tab for the Psalm and start where you left off. The example above is a guide to help you get started.

The purpose of this Read the Bible in the Year is to focus on a week rather than a daily schedule with dates. We get it, life happens and we are traveling, etc and don't get our reading done. Use a highlighter to mark what you have read and within a year or maybe a few weeks after, you will have read the entire bible. And then start again the next year.

Before you read, pray and ask Abba Father to reveal His word to you.

Don't skip over the genealogies. Name and professing names mean something. And if you have time, go and seek those names. There are hidden messages in the names.

Example: Genesis 5 – Adam begot Seth who begot Enosh who begot Cainan, etc

First man (Adam) compensation (Seth) man (Enosh) possession (Cainan)

Continue on with the names and it will reveal a hidden message. Try it also with all the names of the son of Jacob (Israel). The genealogies will help you understand who is who and their sons and the blessings and curses and what happens to families, cities, countries and nations.

Mid-March is actually the beginning of God's New Year and a great time to start reading the bible in a year. If you want to learn more about God's calendar go to www.studythecalendar.com We like to read from March-March. We find this is the less stressful time of our lives with the renewing of God's Covenant / Feast of Unleavened Bread.
