Marley teaches Jack

Marley says all electrical work should only be done by a qualified licenced electrician.

Marley teaches Jack

Marley say doing electrical works without a licence can be dangerous.

Work without an electrical licence might not prevent the silent killer from appearing.

Jack says thank you

Jack says thank you Marley for teaching me about always using an qualified electrician.

Jack says; Electricity is dangerous and you should always use an electrician.

Never do electrical work yourself.

Or Jack will tell your mum.

Marley gives Jack a good listening ribbon
