Pearl Powder (Pearl Powder) has been used as a beauty treatment in China for centuries to brighten the complexion, even out blotchy or discolored skin, and to encourage the healing of burns and wounds. Pearl powder contains an antioxidant that boosts the efficacy of superoxide dismutase, one of the strongest antioxidant enzymes in the body. Pearl powder contains signal proteins that stimulate the regeneration of collagen. Pearl powder is rich in amino acids and more than 30 trace minerals to support health.

Frankincense Tears are highly anti-inflammatory, anti-asthmatic, analgesic and they contain Boswellic acids which have an anti-tumor effect. Frankincense is a cellular regenerator which preserves the skin, smooths out wrinkles and gives new life to aging skin. Treats scars, wounds, ulcerated skin and carbuncles.

Jasmine is anti-inflammatory and softens stretch marks or scaring.

Calendula promotes healthy circulation in the skin. Calendula is also strongly anti-oxidant, used for wound healing, vericose veins, venous stasis ulcers.

Elder Flowers are highly anti-inflammatory.

Nettle is a source of anti-oxidant and anti-aging phytochemicals.

Milk Thistle is very anti-oxidant and anti-inflammatory, cleansing to the liver.

Burdock has been found to improve the clinical signs of aging skin.

Hibiscus has been shown to have anti-aging effects on ultraviolet irradiated human skin. Hibiscus is highly antioxidant and also contains oligopeptides with anti-aging properties.

Polygonum Cuspiditum is very high in resveratrol, which is an anti-oxidant also found in grape skins. Resveratrol has anti-aging effects.

Avocado Oil is a gentle oil shown useful for wound healing.

Sunflower Seed Oil has anti-inflammatory properties that help lower skin redness and roughness. Sunflower seed oil is high in omega-6 fatty acid and vitamin E. Omega-6 acid helps decrease inflammation in the skin and enhances the development of new skin cells.

Grape Seed Oil is antibacterial, anti-oxidant, and useful for wound healing.

Castor Oil is a great humectant which means it helps the skin retain moisture.

Argan Oil is useful for skin barrier repair, is anti-inflammatory, encourages wound healing.

Jojoba Oil regulates sebum production because it's so similar to the sebum that your body produces naturally. When you put jojoba oil on your skin, your skin is soothed and moisturized. This keeps skin from looking oily and helps prevent acne caused by clogged pores.

Goat's Milk is rich in essential fatty acids and triglycerides. As with other milks, goat's milk contains lactic acid, which is an alpha hydroxy acid. It assists to gently slough off dead skin cells and helps to hydrate and brighten the skin.

Neem Oil has been used in beauty regimens and skin care to treat dry skin and wrinkles, stimulate collagen production, reduce scars, heal wounds, treat acne, minimize warts and moles.

Aloe Vera is an antibacterial and anti-inflammatory agent because of the presence of gibberellins and auxins. This helps reduce acne. It also contains polysaccharides that stimulate the growth of new cells. This speeds up the healing process and prevents scarring. Aloe has also been shown to treats wrinkles and fine lines.

Camellia Seed Oil provides ample amount of Vitamin E and omega fatty acids directly to the skin. These moisturize the skin and prevent it from free radical damage.

Sea Buckthorn Seed Oil comes from sour orange berries that grow naturally in parts of Europe and Asia. Due to the moisturizing fatty acids that buckthorn oil contains, it has an innate ability to revive skin cells, and the high content of vitamin E and C reduces the gravity and length of wrinkles.

Kukui Nut Oil forms a protective barrier over the top of the skin, which protects skin from environmental damage. This oil contains omega-3 fatty acids, which have a skin-calming effect that makes Kukui Nut Oil useful for treating sunburns, dry or damaged skin.

Frankincense Essential Oil see Frankincense Tears

Myrrh Essential Oil is a cellular regenerator. It contains powerful skin preservation attributes and slows tissue degredation. Has antiviral properties, cools inflammation in sores, skin ulcers, and eczema.

Indian Sandalwood Essential Oil is anti-inflammatory and anti-oxidant with special properties to help the skin retain moisture.

Emulsifying Wax is an emulsifier (a product that allows water based ingredients and oil based ingredients to bind together) used in hair and skin care. Emulsifying wax is used in skincare recipes to allow for thick creams.

Optiphen is a unique paraben-free and formaldehyde-free liquid preservative system which consists of Phenoxyethanol in an emollient base of Caprylyl Glycol. Optiphen is a globally approved preservative system commonly used in natural lotions in creams.