OUTDOOR SEASON RULES (Updated: Jul 27, 2026)

1. All FIFA rules apply except for those listed below.
2. Ground Discipline for Players: Referees' decision will be final and binding during the matches. Teams are responsible for their players and supporters during and after the match. Zero tolerance on swearing, abusive languages, and physical altercations. Fines will be allocated to the teams or the individual (teams are responsible for their supporters). Fines will be decided by the board.
3. Team Delegates: Teams are required to list 4 meeting delegates prior to the season, and a minimum of 1 must be present at all meetings. All delegates, players, coaches attending any board mandated meeting, must stay till the completion of the meeting, unless given permission or requested to leave. In case of any voting requirements, each team will have a maximum of 2 votes for those delegates in attendance.
4. Delegates are to make sure that each player's full name and Jersey number is written on the game sheet and provided to the refs on timely manner. Delegates need to come and get the signed copy of the referees' report from the current EFSA Board.
5. Defaulted league games and/or tournaments: $100 Fine.
