Litter Did We Know...

Be a Sweep Heart and join your fellow neighbors for a West 86th Clean Sweep. As we have shared in past newsletters some awesome neighbors, including Joyce and Jerry, have volunteered their help to clean up the roads around our community.

E-mail jmarshall261@comcast.net

To be included on the next event.

Sunday May 7th, 2pm

•The West 86th Board is excited to take some time to share updates in our community, as well as to get to know our neighbors. See you there!

•Attend via Zoom (Link to Follow) or in Person at the Clubhouse

Neighborhood #HotTakes

Information that is no longer an unsolved mystery...

- ◆ #Illumination - New Light Globes being installed on the Lamp Posts
- ◆ #Centerpoint - Returning to fill sink holes and pour concrete this week
- ◆ #Developing - The Board is involved in conversations about the Development Proposal to our South

Where we are going... We don't need roads...

Payments that is. Our Street Loan is almost paid in full. Look for the incremental Due payment to end after July's Payment! #winning Pickle, Pickle Ball - Y'all!

Our Neighborhood Nights Pickleball games start in May and Run through September - Wednesday Nights, 6:30 - 8:30

Activity Committee Activate

Thank you to Activities Committee for an awesome time at our Neighborhood Easter egg hunt! As well as another successful Trim A Tree Event!

We are still looking for more neighbors to get involved with the committee to help ensure we have more events that are even bigger and better!

Contact us if interested! Committee meets monthly.

Tropic Like It's Hot.

◆Get Ready for another year of Fun in the Sun at our Community Pool.

Pool Opens Memorial Day Weekend

◆Remember that your Pool Code is unique to each home address. Sharing pool codes can result in suspension of access for 30 days.

◆4 Guests Per Home limit, accompanied by the Home Owner

Nifty Thifty!

May 20th, 8am - Get Ready for the Yearly West 86th Garage Sale and Market Day!

- Mailbox Balloons provided to designate house part of the sale
