

Todd Naragon judging the Jo Statler Breeder's Class which was made up of 18 entries of four Lionheads in each set and covered all four of our show tables

Best in Show (open) was won by Dawn Guth with her Tortoise Senior doe. This doe was also Best Senior in Show for open.

Best Opposite Sex to Breed was the Black Senior buck also owned by Dawn Guth.

The Jo Statler Breeders Class was won by Pridelands Kokomo a Tortoise doe owned by Theresa Muller

Best In Show winner YOUTH Cimmaron Pewter Doll, with her very proud owner - Abigail Gibbons along with Rusty Westhof who awarded them Best in Show after Josh Humphries selected her as Best Siameses Sable.

Best of Opposite Sex to Breed in YOUTH was won by Katelyn Harmon and her Sable Point junior buck. Shown here with Best in Show judge Rusty Westhof. They won the Sable Point variety under judge Tonna Thomas.

Abby Skinner and her Blue junior doe were Best Junior in the YOUTH show.

Josh Humphries judged all of the Blacks and the Siamese Sables as well as the Torts in youth. Here he is looking at a Black junior while Debbie Courtney looks on.

Judge
JOSH HUMPHRIES

Jennifer Laganier helps weigh the top animals in a class while remark taker, Sarrah Gibbons, listens to the judges comments and records them so the owner will know how their Lionhead did.

Judge TODD NARAGON

Part of the team that worked on Todd Naragon's table was Theresa Muller and Cheryl Rafoth, show here helping organize a REW class.

Todd Naragon judged to REW classes and the huge Jo Statler Breeders Class. Here Cheryl Rafoth watches as he works on judging a class.

Judge TONNA THOMAS

The crew that worked with Tonna Thomas bring up Lionheads. Here Carolyn Charville, who was the table ramrod makes sure all the Lionheads for the class have been brought up. Carrying are Abby Skinner and _____, while Kee foreign exchange student from Thailand staying with the Courteny family watches.

Tonna Thomas judged the Chestnuts, Fawns, and Sable Points, in both open and youth. Here she is looking at eye colors on a junior Chestnut Agouti.

Tonna Thomas looking over a class of Sable Points.

Judge Rusty Westhof

Rusty Westhof judged the huge entry of 142
Open Torts.

In addition to the Tort Open classes Rusty judged the Best In Show, for both Open and Youth. He is shown looking a Tort during the Youth Best in show judging.

Part of the crew that brought the Lionheads up to the show tables and returned them to thier coops
when they were done.

The winner of the Showmanship 10 years and older, novice division (which was for youth who have never wond a showmanship ship class before). Shown here with both Josh Humphries and Rusty Westhof who team judged the event

Abigail Gibbons won the Showmanship 10 years and under class.

SHOWMANSHIP

Katelyn Lagainier tried her hand at Showmanship winning a blue ribbon and lots of smiles from the judges.

Rusty Westhoff watching Abigail Gibbons turn over her bunny in the 10 and under class.
Michael and Katelyn Lagainier watch.

Josh Humphries asks question of Sarah Bergs and _____ in the Novice Showmanship 10 and over class.

THE LIVE AUCTION

The Rabbits waiting for the auction to begin.

A NEW RECORD!

This little Siamese doe donated by Dawn Guth and purchased by Louann Coates for $1,150.00.
Thank you to both Dawn and Louann!!

Ethan Urfer helped with auction lifting each Lionhead up so the crowd could see them better. Here he has a REW buck offered by the Armstrongs.

A nice Blue buck donated by Carolyn Charveille.

Ethan Urfer holds up Kirin's Absolute. Our President Gail Gibbons looked over pedigrees and opened the bidding. Live Auction Chair Becky Armstrong made sure everything ran smoothly.

Gail Gibbons tells the crowd about a nice Siamese doe donated by Kendell Buck.

Katie Foss shares high points on the Chestnut buck she donated.

A nice tort buck donated by Sara Berks.