“Exceptional value...”

“Phenomenal

PARTNERSHIP OPTIONS:

- As a designer, to create or modify deliverables, processes, and solutions that fit your needs and enhance the employee experience
- As a facilitator, to bring structure and support, guiding and directing your talent-centric project, discussion, or meeting
- As an advisor (sometimes called a consigliere), to add expertise, insights, and recommendations as you develop your HR and talent strategies

Founder Angela Heyroth is an expert in architecting talent management programs and processes

With a unique breadth of experiences designing and leading across the entire talent lifecycle, her 25-year career has spanned several Fortune 500 firms, in leadership roles across talent attraction, acquisition, retention, development, performance, planning, and engagement. She works with clients of all sizes and industries to understand your talent needs to build purpose-driven experiences. She is a sought-after thought leader in culture, employee engagement, and employee experience and holds an MBA and several industry certifications.
