

ANGELA HEYROTH

SPEAKER, PRESENTER,
FACILITATOR

Angela Heyroth is a talent management expert who has led and transformed teams at some of the world's most successful companies and now partners externally with organizations as the Founder and Principal of TALENT CENTRIC DESIGNS, shaping their talent strategy and designing their talent programs to align with their vision and values, all to further their organization's performance. She is also on faculty with the University of Denver, teaching talent management and organizational design in the Masters of HR graduate program.

As a sought-after keynote, conference, and workshop speaker, Angela is known for her engaging presentations and an approachable style, delivered with the expertise of a practitioner. Angela has delivered livestreamed online webinars and in-person engagements to audiences ranging from 10 to over 1,000 people, and any topic can be delivered either virtual or live.
