The Garden

Dirt ...What's growing on ...

Volunteers have been busy bees this month! The garden and orchard have been weeded, cultivated, hoed and planted ... with more to come. THANK YOU to all who have helped! Please contact Pat if you would like to lend a hand - there are many upcoming projects.

Daufuskie Island 4 H Club's First Meeting Takes Place!

Meetings will be held the 3rd Saturday of each month. They will work on different projects such as baking, raising rabbits, sewing, cooking and wood crafts for starters. What a great opportunity for our youth!

The 4-H Mission

To provide meaningful opportunities for all youth and adults to work together to create sustainable community change.

To be of use

BY MARGE PIERCY

The people I love the best jump into work head first without dallying in the shallows
and swim off with sure strokes almost out of sight.
They seem to become natives of that element,
the black sleek heads of seals
bouncing like half-submerged balls.

I love people who harness themselves, an ox to a heavy cart,
who pull like water buffalo, with massive patience,
who strain in the mud and the muck to move things forward,
who do what has to be done, again and again.

I want to be with people who submerge
in the task, who go into the fields to harvest
and work in a row and pass the bags along,
who are not parlor generals and field deserters
but move in a common rhythm
when the food must come in or the fire be put out.

The work of the world is common as mud.
Botched, it smears the hands, crumbles to dust.
But the thing worth doing well done
has a shape that satisfies, clean and evident.
Greek amphoras for wine or oil,
Hopi vases that held corn, are put in museums
but you know they were made to be used.
The pitcher cries for water to carry
and a person for work that is real.

Little Gwendolyn just went through the process of disbudding (removal of horn buds). Goats can be very mischievous and curious and tend to butt heads (pun intended) and the removal of the buds help keep our goats and humans safe. Gwendolyn is doing very well - come visit our newest addition - she is a cutie!
