I can blame fantasy
For euphoria
To actually watch and hear you say
Starting tomorrow
Gonna put it all together
That tomorrow is only one night away

Forget about the picture of the other life
For just one night

Love Gone Wild
Runnin' through the risky city streets
Look at me - am I what you need?
Doesn't this dream look good on me?
Love Gone Wild
There's so many lonely ways to die
Look at you
Well you're here with me
Dawn is now the enemy
Love Gone Wild

I blame reality
For hysteria
Because in time this dream must end
Time is what I steal to fill the empty spaces
Time and time and time and time again

With trembling nerves I'll scream your name
With woman's pain

Love Gone Wild
Runnin' through the risky city streets
Look at me - am I what you need?
Doesn't this dream look good on me?
Love Gone Wild
There's so many lonely ways to die
Look at you
Well you're here with me
Dawn is now the enemy
Love Gone Wild

Come along I'll show you how to break the rules
Before the night is through
