

Good Faith Estimate

You have the right to receive a Good Faith Estimate detailing the cost of your medical care if you're uninsured or not using insurance. Providers must give this estimate at least 1 business day before services. If your bill exceeds the estimate by $400 or more, you can dispute it. Keep a copy of your estimate. For more information, visit www.cms.gov/nosurprises.

