

Top 10 Ways to Get Hired Faster

David Rawles

CAREERSOLUTIONS

10. Devote Time to Deliberately Selecting Your Next Specific Target Job Title

This should be a job title you desire and for which you have prepared yourself.

9. Devote Majority of Your Job Search Time to Networking

Networking accounts for more job landings than everything else combined.

8. Devote Little Time to Postings, Cold Calling, and Employment Agencies

Do not allow these to become distractions to #9 above, just to stay busy.

7. Faithfully Develop a Weekly Written Job Search Plan to Direct Your Steps

Commit to writing your daily plans, a week in advance, to stay focused.

6. Develop a Killer Résumé & LinkedIn Profile ... Target-Focused & Error-Free

Get help, avoid trendy advice, seek true experts with proven success records.

5. Practice Networking and Interviewing with Different Individuals Weekly

Multiple times per week, get feedback from others as you practice these.

4. Daily, Get Up, Get Dressed, Get Out ... to Minimize Time at the Computer

Everyday go out to personally connect with whom you have set appointments.

3. Daily, Get in Prayer, Get Healthy Meals, and Get Exercise

Don't miss these vital steps to a vibrant walk with a sparkle in your eyes.

2. Devote 40-50 Hours Weekly to Following Your Job Search Plan

Do first things first, get and stay connected, follow through on your plans.

1. Seek 2-3 People to Hold You Regularly Accountable

Ask faithful individuals to ask you to report weekly on the above nine items.

Make a commitment to do these ten things faithfully each day of each week; the Lord will bless your efforts and will provide your next career position! See Ecclesiastes 11:6