

“This is My Destiny”

(Excerpts)

Words and Lyrics by Dennis Jernigan

Born again to be, who He called me to be.
All I have I lay aside, Run the race to gain the prize,
For the sake of knowing, Jesus Christ in me.

He calls me child, He calls me to His side eternally.
He calls what once was lost now found, once bound to sin, now free.
He calls me holy, calls me righteous, by the blood redeemed.
He calls me over-comer, crowned with victory.

He calls me servant, calls me loyal, calls me royalty.
He calls me resurrected one, He calls me His redeemed.
He calls me higher, calls me far beyond my widest dreams.
He calls my heart to come, and be all He can see.

He gives me strength to fight the fight, and run to win the race.
He tells me He delights in me while singing over me,
Accepting me as His beloved, bride to be.

This is My Destiny!
