1. Bar managers have the authority to close either bar earlier, or keep open later, than advertised times based on daylight, weather and usage on any given day and operate either or both at their discretion.
2. Above opening hours are dependent on which room may be utilised for private functions and notices will be displayed in the club to advise members.
3. Bar managers reserve the right to close the bar earlier than advertised closing time if there are not a significant number of members on the premises one hour after local sunset time.
4. The bar may stay open beyond the advertised closing time if televised sporting events run over or by prior arrangement i.e. Champions' League.
5. Regardless of whichever bar may/may not be open, all Members are welcome to sit in either bar area
6. If catering is required for special events outside the advertised catering hours, please contact the catering team.
7. The catering team will assess closing times on an individual basis, if the club is full and customers are still wanting food, they would stay open as long as it is feasible and if the course is closed or the weather is not favourable, they may close earlier than advertised.
