A MESSAGE FROM OUR CANDIDATE

I am running to be your next councilmember because with the authority, power and influence of the DC Council seat, I will be able to "Make Ward 7 One by Building Bridges and Connecting People" to what they need and want to access the opportunities that will enable them to have the high quality of life and prosperity they are entitled to as District of Columbia residents living in Ward 7.

I am the most experienced person in this race for DC Council Ward 7. For over two decades I have been working with or without a title making government work for YOU and YOUR communities.

IN THE MEDIA

DC Handcuffs Defund the Police and BLM Concepts

---

The D.C. Council cast the first of two votes last week on a 100-provision public safety bill that would stiffen gun penalties, create new retail-theft related crimes, and lengthen the maximum prison sentence for repeated theft. The bill passed unanimously, sans one councilperson who voted “present” on the bill.
