Author of the Career Crisis Book Series including “Navigating the Quarterlife Career Crisis: Real Stress, Real Solutions” and “Exploring the Midlife Career Crisis: A Guide to Navigating the Four Stages of Career Transition”

BIOGRAPHY

Scott Doyne is an ICF-certified career coach, bestselling author, and public speaker with a background as a sports media executive. He has delivered over 1,200 hours of coaching, helping clients land roles at top companies like Amazon, Apple, Uber, Visa, the NFL, and Disney, and he also supports entrepreneurs starting their own ventures.

With three decades of leadership experience, including as SVP at Turner Sports and Bleacher Report, Scott's coaching is grounded in real-world expertise recognized by an Emmy for technological innovation. He is a sought-after speaker whose workshops and keynotes have reached global audiences at CES, SXSW, SportsPro and elite universities including Georgia Tech, Skidmore College, Harvard Law School, and more.

Scott generously offers his expertise to non-profit organizations such as Partners in Change where he serves as a member of the Board of Directors and 21st Century Leaders, as well as students at his alma maters, The University of Michigan and Emory University's Goizueta Business School.

His upcoming book, Navigating the Quarterlife Career Crisis: Real Stress, Real Solutions, offers empowering strategies for emerging professionals. This continues the Career Transition Series he began in 2024 with *Exploring the Midlife Career Crisis* which was ranked #1 as an Amazon Best-Selling New Release. He is based in Atlanta with his wife, where they raised two college aged children and their beloved Goldendoodle, Baxter.
