The NRA Foundation Awards $3300.00 to the Fin and Feather Club of Mason County

Scottville, Michigan -- The NRA Foundation has awarded the Fin and Feather Club of Mason County a grant totaling $3300.00 to fund educational opportunities with respect to firearms, hunting safety, and marksmanship, as well as other subjects that are of importance to the well-being of the general public and to support activities of the National Rifle Association of America.

"We are very excited about "Educate Youth and Women Program" said Karen Zimmerman, "and pleased that the NRA is making an investment in our community." The grant will help the Fin and Feather Club continue to promote, advance, and encourage safe handling of firearms, shooting sports, and hunting safety by continuing to grow our youth and women's shooting programs. The Club's offerings include: Hunter Safety Education Courses, Women's Pistol Classes, Concealed Carry Classes, and hosting a new NRA Program, Women on Target.

About the National Rifle Association

Established in 1871, the National Rifle Association is America's oldest civil rights and sportsmen's group. Five million members strong, NRA continues its mission to uphold Second Amendment rights and is the leader in firearm education and training for law-abiding gun owners, law enforcement and the military. About The NRA Foundation

Established in 1990, The NRA Foundation, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization that raises tax-deductible contributions in support of a wide range of firearm-related public interest activities of the National Rifle Association of America and other organizations that defend and foster the Second Amendment rights of all law-abiding Americans. These activities are designed to promote firearm and hunting safety, to enhance marksmanship skills of those participating in the shootings sports, and to educate the general public about firearms in their historic, technological, and artistic context. More information about The NRA Foundation can be found online at www.nrafoundation.org.

About Friends of NRA

Friends of NRA is a grassroots fund-raising program that fosters community involvement to organize and, with help from NRA field staff, plan community events for firearms enthusiasts. All net proceeds from Friends of NRA events are allocated to The NRA Foundation, the leading charitable organization in support of the shooting sports. Through NRA Foundation grants for equipment, training materials, range improvements, and more, qualified local, state, and national programs receive aid to involve and inspire a new generation of competitive shooters. Learn more about Friends of NRA at www.friendsofnra.org.

The Fin and Feather Club of Mason County is committed to providing a way to expand and empower the number of men, women and youth to safely use firearms for hunting, competitive target shooting, and/or personal protection in our community.
