Adhesive Label Specialists

JMB Labels is one of the leading and fastest growing label printing specialists in South Africa, with a firm belief in the importance of business relationships. Good relationships both with its suppliers and customers have been fundamental to the company's success and have resulted in achieving a common goal of producing top quality printed adhesive labels.

From humble beginnings in small premises, JMB Labels now occupies a 1 500m<sup>2</sup> office and factory site in Amalgam, Johannesburg and has future plans of moving to an even bigger premises. The involvement of the Monia family in printing goes back to 1928. Since then grandfather, father and sons have retained the same close personal contact with the industry. Today Ahmed and Aslam run JMB Labels under the mentorship of Yousuf Monia, with long-standing, excellent relationships between them and their small, but skilled staff.

Personal Service

Right from JMB's early days, Yousuf Monia set strict standards of personal attention and service to customer, and potential customers. Today, Ahmed and Aslam adhere to the same principles to ensure they deliver a complete, packaged solution to their customers. As their customers' partners in packaging, the brothers aim to achieve a win-win situation with high quality labels delivered on time at the most cost effective price.

Customers include many leading South African and Southern African companies whose brands are market leaders. Their labels must therefore reflect their image through consistently high standards of quality. JMB Labels prides itself on its long-standing relationships with all suppliers.
