Dear :

This Tax Organizer is designed to help you gather the tax information needed to prepare your 2021 personal income tax return. To help you complete the Organizer, when available, you will find certain information from your 2020 personal income tax return.

Enter 2021 information on the Tax Organizer pages provided. If any information does not apply to you or is incorrect, please draw a line through it or make the necessary corrections.

The Client Questionnaire asks about pertinent tax items necessary for preparing the most accurate tax return possible. Please answer all questions and attach a statement when necessary for additional information not provided in the Client Organizer.

You will also need to provide the following documentation:

- λ Forms W-2 for wages, salaries and tips.
- λ All Forms 1099 for interest, dividends, retirement, miscellaneous income, unemployment compensation, nonemployee compensation, Social Security, state/local refunds, etc.
- λ Brokerage statements showing investment transactions - stocks, bonds, virtual currencies, etc.
- λ Schedule K-1 showing income from partnerships, S corporations, estates and trusts.
- λ Statements and receipts supporting qualified educational expenses, deductions or distributions, including any Forms 1098-T, 1098-E, or 1099-Q.
- λ All Forms 1095-(A,B, and/or C) related to health care coverage or the Premium Tax Credit.
- λ Forms 1099-QA and/or 5498-QA related to ABLE (Achieving a Better Life Experience) account.
- λ All Forms 1099-H related to Health Coverage Tax Credit (HCTC) advance payments.
- λ Statements supporting deductions for mortgage interest (Forms 1098), taxes, and charitable contributions (including any Form 1098-C).
- λ Copies of closing statements regarding the sale or purchase of real property.
- λ Legal papers for adoption, divorce, or separation involving custody of dependent children.
- λ Six-digit Identity Protection PIN if sent to you by the IRS.
- λ Any correspondence you received from the IRS, or other taxing authority, regarding any adjustments to your prior tax return, refund, or balance due, the 2021 Economic Impact Payment amount received, or Advanced Child Tax Credit payments you received.
- λ A copy of your income tax return from last year, if not prepared by this office.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you. In order to meet filing deadlines, we need to receive your completed tax information by March 28, 2022. An extension may need to be filed for tax returns if information is received after this date.

Sincerely,

Michael T. Dulin, CPA, PA

ENGAGEMENT LETTER

December 31, 2021

Dear :

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the services. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following:

We will prepare your 2021 federal and state income tax returns from information which you will furnish to us. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information. We will furnish you with questionnaires and worksheets to guide you in gathering the necessary information.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. It is your responsibility to retain all the documents, canceled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions reported in the tax returns. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. As a business practice, we do not regularly make copies of all client documents for our files when preparing tax returns. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them. By this engagement, we assume no responsibility for the payment of any amounts due.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations and/or irregularities, should any exist. We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as determined to be necessary for preparation of the income tax returns.

Michael T. Dulin, CPA, PA will rely on you to provide information and representations to us in the performance of our professional services and in consideration of the fees that we charge. Because we will be relying on your representations, you agree to indemnify Michael T. Dulin, CPA, PA and its partners and employees, and hold them harmless from all claims, liabilities, losses, and costs arising in circumstances where there has been a knowing misrepresentation by you, your employee or your agent, regardless of whether such an employee or agent was acting in your interest. This indemnification will survive termination of this letter.

We will use our professional judgment in preparing tax returns and providing other tax services. If an applicable tax law is unclear or there are conflicting interpretations of the law, we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on the return. We will follow the position you request on the return so long as it is consistent with tax codes, regulations, and interpretation. If the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority should later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax plus interest and penalties. The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. We assume no liability for any such additional penalties or assessments. If you would like information on the amount or the circumstances of these penalties, please contact us.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

This engagement does not include responding to government inquiries, notices or examinations.

In the event of a government audit or examination, we recommend that you consult with us prior to responding to the tax authority. Any proposed adjustments by an examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. We will be available upon request to represent you in such matters.

A taxpayer may authorize the Internal Revenue Service and state taxing authorities to discuss the taxpayer's return with the CPA who signed the return as "preparer". With this authorization, the "preparer" can handle the inquiry, notice, or examination for you. As a business practice, we routinely check the "yes" box in the signature area of the tax return that makes an irrevocable election to grant this authority for that specific tax return. The authorization is valid for one year. If you do not wish to grant this authority, please notify us.

We are required by professional standards and federal law to keep all information about our engagement confidential. We will not disclose any information about you unless we have your approval through written consent or are required/permitted by law. This applies even if you are no longer a client.

The working papers for this engagement are the property of Michael T. Dulin, CPA, PA and constitute confidential information. Any requests for access to our working papers will be discussed with you prior to making them available to requesting parties. In the event we are requested or authorized by you or required by governmental regulation, subpoena, or other legal process to produce our working papers or our personnel as witnesses with respect to our engagement with you, you will, so long as we are not a party to the proceeding in which the information is sought, reimburse us for our professional time and expense, as well as the fees and expenses of our counsel, incurred in responding to such request.

We are committed to the safekeeping of your confidential information, and we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your information. In general, it is our firm's policy to keep copies of tax returns, working papers and other records related to this engagement for no more than five years from the date we issue your tax returns.

Our fee for these services will be based in part upon the amount of time required at our standard billing rates for the personnel working on the engagement, plus out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation. Amounts not paid within 30 days from the invoice date will be subject to a late payment charge of 1.5% per month (18% per year). For your convenience, we accept Mastercard, Visa, Discover, and American Express as payment.

If the foregoing fairly sets forth your understanding, please note that you are affirming to Michael T. Dulin, CPA, PA your understanding of, and agreement to, the terms and conditions of this engagement letter by any one of the following actions: returning your signed engagement letter to our firm, returning your income tax information to us for use in the preparation of your returns, the submission of the tax returns we have prepared for you to the taxing authorities, or the payment of our return preparation fees. If there are other tax returns you expect us to prepare, please inform us by noting so at the end of the return copy of this letter.

We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Very truly yours,

Michael T. Dulin, CPA, PA

I (we) agree to the business terms as stated in the enclosed letter.

1099 Questions on Business Returns:

Generally, any trade or business that makes payments in the course of that business for rents, interest, compensations, remuneration for services, etc. aggregating $600 or more for the year to a single payee is required to report the payments to the IRS and the recipient by filing Form 1099. These reporting requirements generally apply only to payments made to non-corporations. A Form 1099 is generally required to be filed with the recipient and with the IRS by January 31.

If your Form 1040 includes a Schedule C or Schedule F, we must answer two questions regarding the filing of Forms 1099 when we prepare your return. Please let us know.

	Yes	No
1. Did you make any payments in 2021 that would require you to file Form 1099?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. If "Yes", did you or will you file all required Forms 1099?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

If you need us to assist you in the preparation of these forms, please provide us with the amount paid, the name, address, and social security number of the payee. If the payee is a partnership or LLC, we will need the federal identification number. If you obtained a Form W-9 from the payees, forward a copy of it to our office.

If you prepare your required Forms 1099, please note there is a new form for non-employee compensation. You will use a Form 1099-NEC instead of Form 1099-MISC.

If you are unsure whether payments you made require filing a Form 1099, please discuss with us. The penalties for not filing or for filing late can be significant.
