

---

Trailing Four O'clock

Species exists at comparable latitudes on opposite sides of the equator, but not in the tropics.

---

Prickly Poppy, also called Mexican Poppy

Poisonous sticky sap.

Desert Senna

Stimulant and laxative

Sacred thorn-apple or Datura hallucinogen!

Primroses

Yellow Desert Evening Primrose

Tufted Evening Primrose

---

Desert Hyacinth Or Blue Dick

Grass like stem. Flowers can be blue, purple, pink or white.

---

Desert Mariposa Lily

---

Desert Chicory Or Plumeseed

DESERT
WISHBONE

Golden Chia

---

Larkspur

Member of the Delphinium family. All parts are poisonous.

Globe Chamomile or Stink Net - Invasive

Prairie Sunflower

Desert Thistle

---

Turpentine Bush

Poisonous to dogs and cats if ingested.

Broomrape

- 5 species in Arizona. This plant is a root parasite. Indigenous peoples used the roots and stalk as food.

---

White-wooly Daisy

---

Gordon's Bladderpod

