Chalky Spring/Slot Canyon Hike (Lake Pleasant Area). Rating C/B. This is 6-10 mile in and out hike with an elevation gain of about 600-900 ft. The hike starts out going into Morgan City Wash for about a mile. It then turns into a side canyon with an overgrown riparian area due to the wet Chalky spring. Once past the spring area the canyon narrows into a very scenic slot canyon. The B version can be created by adding more of the main wash down to the Morgan City Wash riparian area loop we do on other hikes. This would make up to a 10 mile hike with about 900 ft of elevation gain. There is a good chance to see wild burros and owls on this hike. Trail condition - 1/3 is along a sandy wash, 1/3 is through a wet riparian area with lots of brush, and 1/3 is through a slot canyon with short dry waterfalls to scramble up/down. No restrooms at the trailhead. No park fee. Driving distance is 74 miles RT.

Coyote Springs Trail (Lake Pleasant Area). Rating C. This is a 6.6 mile in and out hike with an elevation gain of 700 ft. The hike follows a wash for the first mile going to the springs, which usually has some water. There's a good chance to see some wild burros as there are many in this area. The hike continues on to the top of a ridge, providing great views in all directions. Trail condition - mostly a typical desert trail with some sandy wash. No park fee and no restrooms. Garfias Wash/Hells Canyon (Hells Canyon Wilderness). Rating B.

This is an 8.5 mile in and out hike with an elevation gain of 700 ft. It mostly follows the wash and goes through Hell Canyon, a short slot canyon. There is lots of boulder hopping and sand, plus interesting views of many rock formations. We saw more wildlife on this hike than any other single hike. No restrooms. No park fee. Governors Peak/Hells Canyon (Lake Pleasant). Rating B. A short 5 mile round trip hike with an elevation gain of 1,700 ft. From the trailhead you immediately drop down into the huge wash. Which, in fact, is Castle Creek. It's interesting to imagine what type of thunderstorm it takes to fill this broad swath. If you have really good eyesight you can just make out the white login podium across the wide creek bed. If not just remember it's north of the fence by maybe a tenth of a mile. The trail starts on the north side of the low-lying mesquite filled canyon dumping into Castle Creek.

The Spring Valley Trail takes off up a small rise then heads fairly flat in a west-southwestern line. It's well maintained but you will only be on this trail for a short distance. Be on the lookout for the Hermit Trail slanting out to the right. It's less noticeable and the junction is not signed. As of this writing it was cairned. If you miss the junction, the Spring Valley Trail soon dips through a wash so you shouldn't lose much time.

On the Hermit Trail you appear to be headed for the steep ridge ahead. Fear not as the trail slowly curves northeast gently rising you to the first of three saddles. Prior to the first saddle be sure to peek over your shoulder and catch a view of Lake Pleasant.

Continue over the saddle. The trail drops into a tight/deep ravine and back up quickly. In fact it keeps raising a bit more to yet another saddle. This area is simply awesome. This ravine is larger and is named Four Tanks Canyon. The Hermit Trail ends at this saddle. The Bell Trail continues on. Why the change in trails? Well the Bell Trail is an older trail that used to quickly gain this ridge. Private property changed all that good stuff and the Hermit Trail was blazed to accommodate.

A few steps down into Four Tanks Canyon and you'll soon realize this trail is definitely older and overgrown. If only it was that good! Upon reaching the bottom you're faced with a hearty ascent. Bad news being the trail is more or less gone. The good news being it's not much further to Governors Peak. Peak 2992 looms sharp to your right and its slopes are plastered with healthy Saguaros. It's a stunning view!

With basically no trail to follow you need to study the map. The old trail is cairned but I wouldn't waste much time on the scattered mix of cairns. Here's what it boils down to. You have Peak 2992 on your right. The peak ahead of you is a false peak to Governors Peak, but it can be conquered inline if you so desire. The route of choice is to gain a saddle, jag left and then ascend Governors Peak. Which is easy but you will want to watch your footing.

The views are magnificent in all directions. If this is your first trip in the area you will likely be salivating at the options in the western range of Hells Canyon Wilderness! No restrooms and no park fee. Driving distance is 97 miles Parking is just past the cattle guard on the left.

The hike starts by continuing up the road about 50 yards and cutting across the creek bed on the left. (From the parking area, directly across the creek, you can see cairns in the creek bed and in a gap in the bushes you can see the sign-in box.)

Indian Mesa (Lake Pleasant Area, I-17 at Exit #236) Rating C+. This is an in and out hike of 7+ miles with an elevation gain of 1300 ft. The hike starts out by crossing the Agua Fria River. If the river is low you can hike along it to the base of Indian Mesa. If not, once across you go up out of the riverbed and hike parallel to it. If the lake is full, you will add a mile to the hike to get around a finger of the lake. You can see Indian Mesa from the parking lot – just look down the road at a flat-topped white stone mesa. You will probably encounter some of the free-range cattle that wander around along the riverbed. There are lots of views of the riverbed, Lake Pleasant, and the mountain ranges to the west of the lake. This area is closed from 15 December to 15 June as a Bald Eagle breeding area. The final 10 feet or so up to the top is very steep, but there are great views even from the saddle 50 feet below the top. No restrooms at the trailhead. Park fee is $7.00. Lake Pleasant Island Hopping Loop (Walking Jim to Lake Pleasant Regional Park). Rating C/B.

Only do this hike when the lake is very low – late summer to early fall. This is a 7-9 mile Loop hike with an elevation gain of 1000+ ft. The trail goes under Castle Hot Springs Road and goes down the main wash to the lake. There are some interesting rock formations along the way. You then follow burro trails angling right onto the main peninsula (islands when the lake is high). Once you get to the far right end of this area, you work your way back left going across various land bridges. Once you get past the boat launch parking area, you will pick up a clear burro trail and work your way back to the cars using various burro trails. There are lots of interesting views of the “bathtub rings” and a good chance to see some burros. No restrooms at the trailhead, but you go past some in the boat launch area. No park Fee (by parking at Walking Jim TH). Driving distance is 80 miles Lake Pleasant North Canyons (I-17 at Exit #236) Rating C+/B. This is a loop hike of about 6-8+ miles with an elevation gain of 500-900 ft. The B version includes going through a slot canyon near the parking area. We cross the river and hike along an old jeep road before turning into the main canyon. We may encounter some of the free range cattle that wander around along the riverbed. There are lots of views of the riverbed, Lake Pleasant, and the mountain ranges to the west of the lake. Trail condition - Part is along an old jeep road, part is a boulder hop through the canyon, and part is along the sandy riverbed. No restrooms at the trailhead. Park fee is $7.00. Lake Pleasant Northwest Meander (Lake Pleasant). Rating C/B. This is a meandering hike of 7-10 miles with an elevation gain of 700-1000 ft. along a dirt road and then fingers sticking into Lake Pleasant. There are random wild burro trails that we use to navigate the area. Besides the great views of the lake and side canyons, this seems to be where the wild burros live. We have seen over 30 burros each time we have hiked this area – they seem to be everywhere. Trail condition – mostly old roads and burro trails. No park fee. No restrooms at the trailhead. Driving distance is 90 miles RT.

Maricopa Trail - Lake Pleasant East (Lake Pleasant). Rating C-. This is a 4 mile in and out hike with an elevation gain of 500 ft. The hike goes across the front of the Lake Pleasant dam about half mile away. It goes through several washes as it climbs up above the level of the dam. It goes below, though not under the Arizona Canal (you have to do the hike to see why). Lots of typical desert brush including many types of cactus. This trail can be combined with the Morgan City Wash trail to form a nice 7 mile hike. No restrooms at the trailhead. No park fee. Driving distance is 64 miles RT.

Drive about a quarter mile to the Maricopa Trail trailhead on the left (just as the road turns right).

No park fee, but no facilities at the trailhead.

Morgan City Wash Trail (Lake Pleasant). Rating D. This is a 3 mile lollipop loop with an elevation gain of about 320 ft. The hike starts below the Lake Pleasant dam and goes .6 miles to the lower end of the Morgan City Wash. There are three trails starting at the bridge. There is one on each side of the wash along the ridgeline and an overgrown trail through the wash itself. The easiest route is along one of the ridgeline trails and occasionally dropping down into the wash for a short distance. This is considered one of the better birding areas in the state. There was running water in the wash (it sounded like a babbling brook) in September 2011 when we explored the area. This trail can be combined with the Maricopa Trail Lake Pleasant East to make a mile 7 mile C hike. No restrooms at the trailhead. No park fee. Driving distance is 64 miles RT.

Rollercoaster Trail - BLM LP2+LP3 Loop (Hwy 74). Rating B. This is an 8 mile hike with an elevation change of 600 ft, but elevation gain of 1800 ft. It reminds one of a rollercoaster - steep ups and downs all the way. The trail surface is loose stone in many areas. There are great views of Lake Pleasant, Phoenix, and the surrounding mountain ranges. No restrooms. No park fee. Driving distance is 80 miles RT.

Spring Valley Trail/Hells Canyon Wilderness (Lake Pleasant). Rating C. A 6 mile round trip hike with 900 ft of elevation gain. From the trailhead you immediately go down the road and drop down into the huge wash. Which, in fact, is Castle Creek. Then turn back to the left passing a couple of very large cairns in the creek. It's interesting to imagine what type of thunderstorm it takes to fill this broad swath. From the right side of the parking lot, you can see the cairns and the yellow login podium across the wide creek bed between some bushes. If not just remember it's north of the fence by maybe a tenth of a mile, almost opposite the parking lot. The Spring Valley Trail takes off up a small rise then heads fairly flat in a west-southwestern line (slightly left). This is a well maintained trail (lots of large cairns). You will pass through a fence and get distant views of Lake Pleasant as the trail slowly curves to the right. It will make a gradual decent into a wash. The wash is our turnaround point. After our break, we will return the way we came. Trail condition – an average hiking trail. No restrooms and no park fee. Driving distance is 97 miles RT (5 miles of dirt road). After the hike you can drive about 2 miles further down the dirt road to the Castle Hot Springs Resort (which is expected to reopen in late 2018).
