Marmora and Area Curling Club – Informed Consent and Assumption of Risk Agreement

Participant

Clarify any questions or concerns before signing. The 'participant' at the Marmora and Area Curling Club (MACC), acknowledges and agrees to the following terms.

Disclaimer

The MACC, its directors, officers, committees, members, employees, volunteers, participants, sponsors, landlord, collectively the 'Club', are not responsible for any injury, property damage, expense, loss of income, personal injury or loss of any kind suffered by a 'participant' during or as a result of any program, activity or event of the 'Club' caused by the risks, dangers and hazards associated with the programs, activities and events of the 'Club'.

Description of Risks

The 'participant' is participating voluntarily in the sport of curling and activities, events, programs of the 'Club'. In consideration of participation in curling, other activities, events, programs, the 'participant' acknowledges that they are aware of the risks, dangers and hazards associated with curling, other activities, events and programs of the 'Club' and may be exposed to these risks. The risks, dangers and hazards include, but are not limited to injuries from:

- a) being struck by a broom, brush, stick, or curling stone
- b) physical exertion associated with curling, other activities, events and programs
- c) falling due to slippery ice, contact with moving or stationary object or person, failure of equipment, sweeping, skipping and delivery of the curling stone
- d) accidental or unintentional physical contact with other participants, spectators, volunteers, officials or other people in the curling rink for an authorized reason
- e) sliding on the ice surface, note, running is not allowed and is very risky
- f) stepping off the walkway or onto the walkway onto or off the ice surface
- g) failure to use equipment properly, or failure of equipment
- h) illness associated with cold temperatures or vigorous activity in a cold temperature typical of a curling rink
- i) illness associated with COVID that may be inadvertently contracted while on club premises
- j) head or concussion injury associated with head contact with the ice surface

Participant is aware that:

- a) injuries may be severe
- b) activities outside of a participants physical abilities may result in severe injury
- c) injury may result if the participant is fatigued or incapacitated by drug or alcohol use

Assumption of Risk & COVID

It is important that the members and individuals using the curling club understand that when you choose to participate in physical activities outside your home during the COVID pandemic, including curling, you may be at an increased risk of being exposed to, and contracting, COVID 19. This is an inherent risk of participating in activities where you interact with other individuals. Curling has risk for contraction of COVID due to the colder climate and limited ventilation of curling rinks. Members and other participants should carefully assess their personal health circumstances before engaging in curling activities. The 'participant' freely accepts and assumes all the risks, dangers and hazards and possibility of injury, expense, and loss resulting from participation in activities, events and programs of the 'Club'.

Use of Personal Information

The Club shall not use or disclose any personal information, including photographs, other than for its intended purpose, namely for meeting and maintaining the highest standards related to the Club and its activities and programs, unless individual consent is given.

Acknowledgement

The 'participant' acknowledges that he/she has read this document and understands it, that they have signed it voluntarily and the agreement is binding upon themselves, their heirs, executors, administrators and representatives.

Recommendation

The MACC recommends that 'participants' wear personal protective equipment suitable to prevent injury while engaging in the sport of curling or the activities, events or programs of the 'Club'.
