From the Heart of a Cowgirl

Rebecca Hampton

It's my favorite time of the year, Christmas! I love this time of the year. The kids are so excited. It seems like the people are even happier and nicer this time of the year; I think the animals like it too. They get excited at the parade. They get to get dressed up and greet people that come to the parade. They always want to pet the ponies and horses. It's just an exciting time of the year.

Even our church services focus on Christmas. The Cowboy Kids learn Christmas carols and love to hear the Christmas Story. They know Christmas is not about Santa Claus; it's about Jesus. E agree the presents are nice, but Jesus is the best gift of all.

As we wrap up the old year and bring in the new, we always have a New Year's Eve Party for them, and it is always a lot of fun. This year I had a little more money to spend on fireworks and they were pretty. Tommy McHan shared a wonderful testimony of God's goodness to them. It was an awesome time of fellowship and worship.

Keep us in your prayers as we enter this new year. I know God is going to do great and mighty things in this ministry and in the hearts of His people. I love the song "Turn your eyes upon Jesus look full in His wonderful face and the things of earth will grow strangely dim in the light of His glory and grace."

One day we will ride with Him in white...
