OLD BUSINESS

- Paul is still working on a refund from GoDaddy for Office 365 and needs to follow up with them.

NEW BUSINESS

- Scott H reported on the 2026 international. Colorado's bid was accepted and he has contracts offered from two hotels - The Renaissance and the Marriott DTC, which is the leading candidate as it is significantly cheaper per person. The Marriott contract has been forwarded for review.
 - Scott informed Paul that he should expect between $100,000 and $125,000 to flow through our accounts and a $60,000 food and beverage minimum to secure meeting space. If the treasurer position changes at the end of 2025, the incoming treasurer should be fully aware of the additional work they are taking on.
 - A joint committee with S-anon is meeting weekly to prep ahead of this year's international so we are ready to promote it there and asked for volunteers to reach out to him if they are interested in this work.
 - Blaine offered the historical perspective that the Colorado intergroup became a 501(c)(3) for the 2016 international to avoid the liability of having an individual handle such a large amount of cash flow and wanted to make sure we had recovered that status to protect the treasurer. Paul updated that the application has been submitted and while it hasn't been approved yet, he does not foresee a problem.
- Jillian reminded the group to double check their information is correct on the Colorado Intergroup Fellowship spreadsheet.

MEETING ADJOURN
