HISTORIC CITY PARK GOLF COURSE

1442 City Park Ave.
Baton Rouge
225.387.9523

This 9-hole BREC public facility opened in 1926 and is on the National Register of Historic Places. The course is located north of I-10 (Dalrymple Exit). In 2022, a wooden statue of designer Tom Bendelow was carved by local artist Burt Fleming from a damaged tree on the property. Historic City Park Golf Course is popular for a quick round in the heart of the capital city. Yearly rates (with cart) are $20 for nine holes and $30 for 18 holes. Tee times available online.

J.S. CLARK GOLF COURSE

2301 Thomas Road
Baton Rouge
225.775.9008

This 9-hole BREC public facility opened in 1951 and got a major renovation last year. The course was stretched to over 3,000 yards and features huge greens (the par-3 fifth hole has a green that is almost 50 yards deep). When played as an 18-hole course, the total yardage is 6,324 yards. The course is named after Joseph Samuel Clark, who was the first president of nearby Southern University. This facility has a lighted driving range and short-game practice area. Yearly rates (with cart) are $19 for nine holes and $30 for 18 holes.

SANTA MARIA GOLF COURSE

18460 Santa Maria Parkway
Baton Rouge
225.752.9667

This 18-hole BREC public facility opened in 1986 and is located just off I-10 (Exit 166) in South Baton Rouge. Santa Maria is known for its rolling terrain, mature oaks, many lakes and two natural waterways. The two-story Spanish Clubhouse features a pro shop, restaurant, private conference center and a fitness center. The course is 15 minutes from downtown Baton Rouge. It plays just under 7,000 yards from the tips. Yearly rates (with cart) are $50-$60. Tee times available online.

THE ISLAND GOLF COURSE

23550 Myrtle Grove Road
Plaquemine
225.685.0808

Located only 14 miles from downtown Baton Rouge, this semi-private facility is located safely away from the hustle and bustle of the capitol city. The course features nine man-made lakes resulting in water on all but one hole. Despite the water, this championship tract is designed for fun. The front nine is played clockwise and the back nine is played counterclockwise. Take Hwy. 1 south from I-10 and then turn right on Bayou Jacob Road. Yearly 18-hole rates with cart are $50-$60 (plus tax). The Island is closed on Mondays.

WEBB MEMORIAL GOLF COURSE

1351 Country Club Drive
Baton Rouge
225.383.4919

Opened in 1920s, this historic 18-hole BREC public facility is located just north of I-10 (Exit 158). The course features large oak trees lining many holes on the course. This facility was private for the first 20 years of its existence as it opened up as Westdale Country Club. BREC acquired the course in 1957. The yearly rates for 18 holes and cart are $33-$37. There is no driving range, but outside hitting bays are ample facilities to get warmed up before your round. Tee times are available online.
