

Script for Submitting the Criminal Incident Report

This is a criminal incident report that is being submitted by concerned citizens of Canada. Charges entail the criminal offense of Treason against Justin Trudeau, Chrystia Freeland, Bill Blair, Mark Mendicino, and David Lametti.

Evidence indicates the emergency Act was invoked illegally and did not follow the rules of the Emergencies Act, formerly known as the War Measures Act. Section 17.1 of the Emergencies Act states the invocation of the Act must go through a Parliamentary process to be legal. The Governor in Council does not include the House of Commons and the Senate. The Governor in Council is comprised of 39 Federal Cabinet Ministers and the Governor General. The Governor in Council was not involved in this invocation making the invocation illegitimate.

Our evidence proves only 3 Liberal MPs voted on the invocation of the Act making the invocation illegal. Our rights under the Canadian Bill of Rights supersede the Order with regard to the protests. The Order does not satisfy the conditions of the Canadian Bill of Rights. Thou-shalt-not as Agents of the Canadian Government override the rights of a Canadian citizens, unless an Act of Parliament authorizing these agents to do so, and in this invocation there was not. There was no Act of Parliament, it was an act of 3 liberal MPs that the invocation of the Emergencies Act was enacted making it illegitimate.

These individuals listed above have committed the criminal offense of Treason. We are now handing in evidence and affidavits related to this matter.
