Skills and Personal Attributes

Customer Service: Many years' experience with internal / external customers in many roles. I am a problemsolver who achieves results to ensure Customer satisfaction and anticipate Customer needs.

Communication Skills: I am an exceptional listener who demonstrates genuine concern about passenger comfort. My diverse range of experience within Office and Retail industries has enabled me to acquire strong written and verbal communication skills to a high level. I boast a high standard of interpersonal skills.

Team: The ability to perform under pressure within a Team, in a high energy, fast paced work environment. I am equally as capable working autonomously and thrive working in a flexible environment.

Highly Motivated: I have a proven track record of achievement both personally and professionally. I enjoy setting goals, setting a plan to achieve these goals and finally the satisfaction of completing them within timeframes as efficiently as possible. I am also highly motivated by performance incentives and rewards.

Organisational Skills: Due to my experience, I have developed excellent organisation skills to ensure that I plan my time effectively. This enables me to achieve maximum output in minimum time, as well as handle several activities simultaneously. I also possess strong strategic planning and market research skills.

Responsible: I have a strong work ethic and a mature approach to every position and task that I undertake or situation that I am presented with. I am loyal and dedicated and adopt the ethos of the organisation I am working for. I always display a professional presentation and manner.

Diversity: My extensive experience has allowed me to work in many different industries. This has given me the experience and maturity to be respectful and courteous to people of all ages, backgrounds and ethnicity. I enjoy meeting new people and genuinely enjoy hearing other people's point of view and experiences.
