Drum Call

Lyrics by Cindy Olejar

Move to the beat where the breath gently flows.

Move to the beat where tension let’s go.

Move to the beat where peace lightly sows.

Move to the beat where pure love grows.

Listen in the space and you will know.

Just to be with the beat that your drum call shows.

Listen in the space and you will know.

Just to be with the beat that your drum call shows.

Just to be with the beat that your drum call shows.
