Douglas Levesque, candidate for the U.S. Taxpayers Party of Michigan, will join gubernatorial primary candidates this week at the Marquette Values Forum. The event will be held at the Kaufman Center, Marquette, on May 27th, with doors opening at 5:00pm.

The forum is being hosted by the Michigan Coalition for Freedom, a bipartisan, non-profit advocacy group, dedicated to bringing Biblical values back to American politics.

Gubernatorial candidates will be invited to speak about their platforms, values, and personal beliefs before a live audience, before taking questions.

As of today's date, nine out of eleven primary candidates have indicated their interest in the event. Mike Brown, Ryan Kelley, Michael Markey Jr., Ralph Rebandt, and Douglas Levesque have confirmed they will attend.

Broadcasters and media partners will include TV6 Fox UP (WLUC), WMPL Radio, MIX 93.5, L'Anse Sentinel, and Salem Media Group.

Forum moderators will be radio host, Kris Kyro, and pastor Brian Mason.

The Marquette event will be followed by our Eastern Values Forum, to be held at Grace Christian Church, Sterling Heights, on June 17th. Confirmed attendees as of today's date are James Craig, Ryan Kelley, and Ralph Rebandt.

Michigan CFF president, Ellis Smith, and its board members are available for interviews and comment, and can be contacted by emailing: board@michigancoalition.org

The Michigan Coalition for Freedom is a Registered 501 (c) (4) and represents an alliance of influential pastors, politicians, and community leaders within Michigan's four million strong faith community.
