Greetings:

Our 2026 theme is “Rooted and Ready” Colossians 2:6-7. This year's conference will focus on being Rooted in Faith, Rooted in Strength, Rooted in Knowledge, and Ready for purpose. The 2026 conference is designed to foster youth activities, dialogue, workshops, panel discussions, and greater worship experiences. Young Adults will be provided an opportunity to deepen their faith and gain practical tools to navigate the real-life challenges of relationships and finances.

All activities and lunch will take place at First Baptist Highland Park, 1701 S. Pine St. Little Rock, AR. Our outreach project was appreciated by the students. We will support Arkansas Baptist through non perishable goods, school supplies, and monetary donations again. We will also include hype sessions, power talks, and empowerment workshops that will prepare them to be ready for God's next assignment. Calling all VENDORS during the lunch hour (12:00-1:00 p.m.). Yes, products, goods, and services are welcome!!!

Conference Registration:

Early Registration (now-August 31st) $150.00 per church includes digital downloads for ministry support, conference souvenir, conference program, and lunch Saturday.

General Registration (September 1st–September 26th) refer to the registration chart. General registration includes digital downloads for ministry support and lunch Saturday.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Derick Easter, President Youth and Young Adult Auxiliary

Dr. Nate Palmer, Young Adult Auxiliary

Theme: Rooted and Ready

Youth Enrichment Sessions

Our engaging speakers will guide participants through two interactive 50 minute sessions.

Rooted in God's Love! (AGES 5-8) ● Participants will be here for both Sessions	God made you and he doesn't make mistakes. This topic is designed to build self esteem and create a foundation of identity, belonging, trust, and God's love. We'll engage through crafts, song, movement, story time, and games.
Ready to Shine (AGES 9-11) ● Participants will be here for both sessions	Learn how kindness, obedience, courage, and serving others help them shine for Jesus at home, school, and church through role play and interactive activities.
#1 Strong Mind. Strong Body. - (AGES 12-14)	An exciting workshop introducing personal safety, basic self defense, situational awareness, and bible courage.
#2 I can. Future Focused. (AGES 12-14)	Phil. 4:13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. Explore emotional health, friendships, peer pressure, social media, and identity through a biblical lens. Practical tools for healthy decisions.
#1 Dream Big: God's Blueprint for your future. (AGES 15-17)	Create a personal vision for life after high school by exploring college, trades, entrepreneurship, military service, and ministry while identifying their God-given gifts.
#2 Kindness is a Superpower (AGES 15-17)	Biblical principles for setting boundaries in friendships, discussing digital footprints that affect college and job applications, and strategies on how to handle disagreements with parents and friends.

Young Adult Topics

(Ages 18-35)
