BOOK A CONSULTATION

Weddings by Obsidian Productions consultations are the first layer of perfection we offer our clients. We take it all in, every detail to formulate magnificent images.

Sitting down in a one on one exchange with our couples provide us an opportunity to give you a personal overview of our operation. Tossing questions back and forth helps you to understand our service and gives us a sound grip on your expectations for your special moment. We discuss budgets, looks, attire, special poses, props, scenery and in turn extend you a package that's best suited you. For only $150, our consultations secure careful planning and execution, valuable components to the perfect photoshoot.
