RELEASE AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY

The organizers of The Crash 2026 (referred to as “the sponsors”) are producing an event for Young Men (“Participants”). We require the participants and their parent or guardian to read and agree to the following:

As Sponsor: (Name), _____

1. I confirm that I have voluntarily agreed to participate in The Crash 2026.
2. I understand that the activities involved in The Crash will be physically demanding at times and that personal injuries or property damage may occur.
3. I have no reservations about my physical fitness or health that would prevent me from participating in physically demanding activities. I have advised the Society of any physical condition, allergies or disability of mine.
4. I understand that The Crash 2026 takes place in a wilderness setting and includes such activities as hiking, campfires, games, using tools, swimming, and travelling to and from the site. I acknowledge the risks inherent in this setting and in these activities and recognize that serious personal injuries, damage to personal property or even death may occur. We agree to assume those risks and release the Sponsors from any responsibility.
5. I hereby release and discharge the Society, my fellow Sponsors, Participants, the hosts/owners/occupiers of the land at which the event is being held, and other persons authorized by them to help produce The Crash 2026 from any and all claims that I, my heirs, successors, or my personal representatives may have for any injury (including injury resulting in death) or disability sustained by me, however caused.
6. I agree that all photographs/videos taken of me during The Crash 2026 are the property of The Crash Youth Camp Society of BC. These can be used at the discretion of The Crash Youth Camp Society of BC.
