ASEA FAST 4WARD CHALLENGE RULES

ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANTS

Associates in any open ASEA market may participate in Fast 4ward. Fast 4ward Plus is available to all ASEA associates in the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and Mexico.

STARTING THE FAST 4WARD CHALLENGE

To start your Fast 4ward challenge, visit your ASEA virtual office, click on the Fast 4ward banner, and follow the prompts to begin your 14-day challenge period. Once you begin your challenge, you can't pause or restart. You have 14 days to complete the challenge.

You can complete as many Fast 4ward challenges as you want, beginning a new one every 14 days. You may start your next Fast 4ward challenge the day after the current one runs its full 14 days. The cycles cannot overlap.

You may start your Fast 4ward challenge any day of the week. You may choose the current date or back-date your opt-in by up to 72 hours, allowing you to count recently enrolled associates or preferred customers. Your start date may not overlap your current Fast 4ward challenge with a previous Fast 4ward challenge.

CHALLENGE REQUIREMENTS

Within your 14-day challenge period, you must:

- Enroll a minimum of four new associates or preferred customers, each with a minimum enrollment order of 100 promo points and a minimum 100 promo-point autoship.
- Achieve a minimum cumulative 800 promo points from new enrollment order volume.

You can go for more rewards with the Fast 4ward Plus challenge, which gives you 14 days to:

- Enroll a minimum of eight new associates or preferred customers, each with a minimum enrollment order of 100 promo points and a minimum 100 promo-point autoship.
- Achieve a minimum cumulative 1200 promo points from new enrollment order volume.

All associates and preferred customers with qualifying enrollment orders on or after the calendar day you start your Fast 4ward challenge and all enrollment PV tied to those new enrollees will count toward your Fast 4ward qualification.

Promo points are valued at 1 PV = 1 promo point for associates; 1 PV = 2 promo points for PCs.
