My Life's Work - what I'm here to do - Gene Key 43

You are not here to 'fit in' with what society expects of you. You are the original creative rebel. You do not need to drop out of society, but you will have to live one that allows you to integrate with others, but still gives you absolute freedom of expression. The most important thing for you is to refuse to be controlled by others. Your spirit must feel at ease rather than be caught up in the rat race of achievement. Achievement is a meaningless word to someone like you. You are a continually evolving field of surprises. You have to allow yourself to be childlike without being immature. Others may not understand you, but many will love to be around you for pure refreshment. Whatever work you do, you need to pour your insight into it, so you need a role that allows you to be spontaneous. Above all, you must be able to laugh at yourself, and at how serious you can sometimes become.

My Evolution - what I'm here to learn - Gene Key 23

Your great test in life is timing. You are here to learn how to wait for the right moment to speak. The longer you hold back from speaking, the more powerful your influence will become. Your ability to wait for right timing will guarantee your reputation as a clear-headed and highly original thinker. If you are unable to be patient, you may irritate people and create confusion where there actually wasn't any. Timing is so imperative for you, because it gives your mental processes time for distillation. If you speak before you are ready, you will not be fully heard, even if you think you have been. You will recognise right timing, because you will receive praise and recognition.

My Radiance - what keeps me healthy - Gene Key 4

You are one of these people who need to see things visually in order to really understand them. Your visual environment is extremely important for you. It needs to have the feeling of order but without becoming an obsession. Above all, your health is tied to the way you use your mind. If you become obsessed with planning for the future and over-analyse yourself and your life, you will lose all your vitality. Even though you have an acute mind, it is not the most important thing about you by a long shot. In fact, it's just a box of tricks that you and others can get a great deal of entertainment from. Your real Gift is understanding, which lies beyond the mind's capability. Your understanding comes from your ability to let things and people simply be the way they are without demanding they change. You of all people know that there is a logical reason for everything, but you really don't need to know what it is most of the time. Most of the time, you simply need to have fun.

My Purpose - what deeply fulfils me - Gene Key 49

You create a very powerful charge in the energy field of your aura, and this can unsettle other people or set them on fire with inspiration. If you allow this deep revolutionary spirit within to come alive in your life, it will indeed cause a great stir. You are not here to have a quiet life. Your role is to bring a new kind of vision into the world through relationships and community. When you are emotionally clear in your own life, your impact on others will become more and more powerful. To have this Gift as your Purpose during these times is highly auspicious. If you allow it, a force is trying to work through you and bring dynamic change to the world. You are the one who has to step out of the shadows and give voice and action to the revolutionary spirit of this coming age. It is down to you, and those like you, to have the courage to openly challenge the direction of mass consciousness, and to entreat those who will listen to break out of their compromised life patterns and embrace their freedom.
