DESCRIPTION:

Trekking across Himalayas will bring a great trekking achievement, especially when it comes to holy Kedarnath trek. The Kedarnath temple lies amidst the majestic snow-capped Garhwal Himalayan ranges. The most remote of the four Chota Char Dham sites, Kedarnath is located in the Himalayas, about 3,583 m (11,755 ft) above sea level near Chorabari Glacier, the source of river Mandakini.

Chopta Tungnath trek is one of the highest Shiva temple in the world and the highest Panch Kedar temple of Uttarakhand. This Shiva temple is 1000-year-old and located at an altitude of 3,680 m (12,073 ft), and just below the peak of Chandrashila.

According to Hindu Mythology, the wedding of Usha (Daughter of Banasura) and Aniruddha (Grandson of Lord Krishna) was solemnized here. By name of Usha this place was named as Ushamath, now known as Ukhimath.

Rishikesh and located in the laps of lower Himalayas and is surrounded by scenic beauty of the hills on three sides with Holy Ganga flowing through it.

Rishikesh is measured to be well-known for its white river rafting because it is the start of the river Ganga. It makes this place an ideal destination for wildlife and adventure lovers.

Haridwar is regarded as a holy place for Hindus. According to the Samudra manthan, Haridwar along with Ujjain, Nashik and Prayagraj (Allahabad) is one of four sites where drops of Amrit, the elixir of immortality, accidentally spilled over from the pitcher while being carried by the celestial bird Garuda. Brahma Kund, the spot where the Amrit fell, is located at Har ki Pauri (literally, "footsteps of the Lord") and is considered to be the most sacred ghat of Haridwar.
