DESCRIPTION

The name "Spiti" means "The Middle Land", i.e. the land between Tibet and India. Spiti Valley, with an average height of 12,500 feet above sea level, is a desert mountain which lies nestled between India and Tibet. With clear blue skies, snow-capped mountains piercing up and turquoise green streams as your companions. Spiti is an adventure lover's paradise, with the famed Spiti trek attracting thousands of adventure enthusiasts every year. Spiti River from Dhankar Monastery to Dhankar Lake promises gorgeous views of the villages below, and the Dhankar Lake itself is a place where you can sit back and relax amidst the cool mountain air.
