

~ True Magic ~ (Part 1)

- I N T R O D U C T I O N

The word itself is a misnomer. There truly IS no such thing! Here is the key...

In Creation, all things are interrelated, interdependent and woven together in His majestic masterpiece of living art.

In this realm of perception we live, there are things and ENERGIES, which have "authority" over OTHER things and energies....

This is a NATURAL hierarchy....

The reason why the word "occult" exists, is by its very definition, which means, "hidden knowledge" and has nothing to do with any hoodoo, or other such nonsense, but the problem is so FEW put themselves to the formidable task of understanding this dynamic, interacting with it and manifesting changes to it. THOSE things are hence now termed, "magic" when it simply, and more correctly put, is the expression of dynamic force and change within certain frameworks of "reality" thereby CHANGING same said "reality" into a different form!

All the individual wielding such authority is, merely is the CATALYST to an existing already set and ready chain of events, merely being INVOKED by the "practitioner" rather than by some "mysterious" or "magical" power! There IS not such thing! The level of authority any individual has over these already existing chains of relations is directly proportional to how the very elements themselves RESPECT the practitioner, and hence, either conforms to the will of them, or remain static and unchanged due to the ABSENCE of that very respect....

All things ARE "alive" in ways that the vast majority never comprehend. AND, they have "decision-making" abilities as a result. Understanding THAT ALONE, is merely the beginning of having embarked upon the path of the very elements of Creation themselves respecting YOU.... These "inanimate" objects are anything but inanimate you see... One then must come to an understanding upon which plane of existence these things truly exist in, and it is PURE NOBILITY.... To "influence" any noble thing, one must first be noble themselves, as many animal handlers innately already know....

I have written much on the subject of removing the flesh from the equation, for the flesh is not noble as it now resides in a FALLEN state, thereby, NO ONE living IN the flesh will have ANY “authority” over the NOBLE realm of which these things live in, and obey the same tenets therein...

THAT is your key to “magic” and the lock is the already setup relationships between all things... Be the proper KEY and you can turn ANY lock...

Even Science has come to OBSERVE this dynamic, albeit, they do not UNDERSTAND it.. In Scientific terms, it is referred to as the “observer” effect. They have seen how the OBSERVER of a “reaction” influences the thing BEING observed but do not comprehend how this happens or why...

These influences emanate from the ENERGY of the one observing is the culprit, but since to those people, that can not be “empirically” expressed, so it remains veiled and obscure to them... Einstein, as an example, failed to find the highly touted “Unified Field Theory” because, even with the utter brilliance he walked in, he failed to figure into that equation, the variables associated with the DISCIPLINE of the observer, which influences the energy field surrounding them, which in turn, influences whatever it is they are observing... How many scientific breakthroughs have been lost simply because they cannot be REPLICATED by others?

Much here to consider as we journey into the walk of DIVINE authority and the overwhelming power we COULD be walking in, if only we CHOOSE to...

Highest Regards and Much Love,

Kevin
