CREATIVE ARTS The Veterans Creative Arts Festival (VCAF) is a sub-program under the VA&R Program and is nationally recognized. The purpose is the rehabilitation of Veteran inpatients or community-based Veterans through the use of Art, Music, Writing, or Dance.

The National Festival is co-sponsored by the Department of Veteran Affairs and the National American Legion Auxiliary. Following the eligibility and submission rules for participation, the National Festival is open to all qualifying veterans (participation at a local VCAF is not required). Winners selected by the National Committee are invited to attend the National Creative Arts Festival at their own expense.

If a local VA Medical Center elects to hold an art event, the event is co-sponsored by the local VA Medical center and the American Legion Auxiliary. As funding allows, the Auxiliary provides event support such as food/beverages, volunteers and promotion. Additionally, if an Arizona veteran is invited to the National VCAF, financial support may also be provided.

Funding for VCAF support comes from donations made by Units and Districts to the Department of Arizona. These funds are managed through the Department and by the overall Department Creative Arts Chairman and the local chairmen for each VA Hospital as appointed by the Department President.
