

DEPARTMENT CONSTITUTION, BYLAWS AND STANDING RULES OF THE AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY DEPARTMENT OF ARIZONA

Revised and Updated 2006-2013, 2015-2016, 2018-2019, 2021-2026

CONSTITUTION of the
American Legion Auxiliary Department of Arizona

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in All Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state, and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to participate in and contribute to the accomplishment of the aims and purposes of The American Legion; to consecrate and sanctify our association by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I

Name

Sec. 1 The name of the organization shall be American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Arizona, Inc.

ARTICLE II

Nature

Sec. 1 The American Legion Auxiliary is a civilian patriotic service organization that supports the mission of The American Legion. (23)

Sec. 2 The American Legion Auxiliary shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment. (23)

ARTICLE III

Object

Sec. 1 The object of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Arizona, Inc., shall be as stated in the Preamble of the Constitution.

ARTICLE IV

Eligibility

Sec. 1 Membership in The American Legion Auxiliary shall be limited to the:

- (a) Grandmothers, mothers, sisters, spouses, and direct and adopted female descendants of members of The American Legion; and
- (b) Grandmothers, mothers, sisters, spouses, and direct and adopted female descendants of all men and women who served during either of the following periods: April 6, 1917, to November 11, 1918, and any time after December 7, 1941, who, being a citizen of the United States at the time of their entry therein served on active duty in the Armed Forces of any of the governments associated with the United States during either eligibility period and died in the line of duty or after honorable discharge; and
- (c) Grandmothers, mothers, spouses, and direct and adopted female descendants of all men and women who were in the Armed Forces of the United States during either of the following periods: April 6, 1917, to November 11, 1918, and any time after December 7, 1941, who served on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States during either eligibility period and died in the line of duty or after honorable discharge; and
- (d) To those women who of their own right are eligible for membership in the American Legion. (2019)

Sec. 2 There shall be two classes of membership, Senior and Junior.

- (a) Senior membership shall be the functioning (or active) group, composed of members over the age of eighteen years, provided however, that a spouse under the age of eighteen years, who is eligible under Sec. 1 of this Article, shall be classified as a Senior member. (90)
- (b) Junior membership shall consist of that group under the age of eighteen years, whose activities shall be supervised by Senior membership. Upon reaching the age of eighteen years, or by marriage, Junior members shall automatically be admitted into active membership with full privileges. (79)
- (c) Dues of both classes shall be paid annually, or for life.

ARTICLE V

Organization

Sec. 1 The Department shall be divided into not less than five or more than twelve Districts, boundaries to conform to those of The American Legion. The Department will be responsible for requesting and obtaining a Charter for each District. Each individual District will have its own EIN (Employer Identification Number) and an Arizona Corporation Number. Headquarters and all Districts will keep on file copies and proof of the yearly IRS filing (990, 990EZ, or 990N), and Arizona Corporation Commission report. Department Headquarters is responsible for making sure that these reports are filed yearly by either the District or the Executive Director of Operations.

- Sec. 2 The District President shall be elected by the various Units in each District at a District Meeting called by the District President. Each Unit in the District shall be entitled to one vote for the office of District President and one vote for the office of District Vice President. The elected District Officers shall have no vote except by vote of their Unit. All District Presidents shall hold Office until their successors have been duly elected and installed.
- Sec. 3 Vacancies shall be filled by a special election, called by the District Executive Committee for the Units in the District in which the vacancy occurs, or by a majority vote of the District Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VI

Officers

- Sec. 1 The officers of the Department shall be President, Vice President, Second Vice President, Historian, and Chaplain, all to be elected at each annual Department Convention. All officers shall hold office until their successors have been elected.
- Sec. 2 The Vice and Second Vice President, in order named, when called upon, will assist the President and in the President's absence perform the President's duties and shall succeed the President in office in case of death, resignation or removal. (88) Vacancies in any other office occurring between annual Conventions shall be filled by the Department Executive Committee. (93)
- Sec. 3 All District Presidents shall serve on the Department Executive Committee with vote.
- Sec. 4 These officers shall have powers and duties usually appertaining to their office under parliamentary law and usage, or as shall be prescribed by the Department Executive Committee.
- Sec. 5 Retiring officers shall be given thirty days after the close of the Department Convention to close their books.
- Sec. 6 Any elected Department President, Vice President, Second Vice President, Historian, or Chaplain shall not succeed themselves in office.
- Sec. 7 District Presidents may serve only two consecutive terms. Although not recommended, where there is no eligible member nominated to serve as District President, a current District President may serve more than two consecutive terms. (2026)

ARTICLE VII

Powers

- Sec. 1 The administrative power shall be vested in the Department Executive Committee, to include the authority through which all paid employees will be hired or removed from employment. The Department Employee Manual Policies will be adhered to in this action. The Department Executive Committee is composed of one President from each District, or in their absence the District Vice President, the Department President, the Department Vice President, Department Second Vice President, National Executive Committeeman, the Department Chaplain, and the Department Historian. The Department Executive Director of Operations shall serve on the Executive Committee without vote. All Arizona Past National Presidents in good standing in an Arizona Unit shall be members of the Department Executive Committee for life with vote, serving without expense.
- Sec. 2 All Arizona Past Department Presidents in good standing in an Arizona Unit shall be members of the Arizona Department Executive Committee with voice and one (1) vote. (2004) They serve without expense to the Department. (1987)
- Sec. 3 A quorum of Department Executive Committee shall be fifty-one percent of the elected members of the committee plus all Arizona Past National Presidents, Past Department Presidents, and the National Executive Committeeman. No member will have more than one vote.
- Sec. 4 The use of an absentee vote is in conflict with the idea of equality of members, which is one of our

- fundamental principles; therefore, no member of the Executive Committee shall vote at a regularly convened meeting of the Executive Committee, except in person. (2016)
- Sec. 5 The Department Executive Committee shall meet within twenty-four hours prior to both the Conference and Convention, and thereafter at the call of the Department President.
- Sec. 6 The Department Executive Committee shall have power and authority in case of an emergency to call a Department Convention, provided that notice of at least thirty days prior thereto shall be given to all Units thereof and reason stated for calling the Convention. Place of meeting upon occasion shall be designated by the Department Executive Committee.
- Sec. 7 The Department Executive Committee shall have control over all property belonging to the Department, with the exceptions of donated items for the Cavalcade of Memories. (92) The Department Finance Committee shall ensure a Property Book is maintained.

ARTICLE VIII

Convention

- Sec. 1 The legislative body of this Department shall be a Department Convention to be held each year. The time and place of the Annual Convention shall conform with that of The American Legion Annual Convention.
- Sec. 2 Each Unit shall be entitled to four delegates and four alternates and one additional delegate and alternate for each twenty-five members, or major fraction thereof, whose current Department and National dues have been paid and received by Department Headquarters thirty days prior to the holding of the Department Convention.
- Sec. 3 Units not having their current District, Department and National mandates paid by the due dates set forth in the governing documents shall not be entitled to vote or receive Department Awards. (effective 26-27)
- Sec. 4 Each delegate shall be entitled to one vote. The vote of any delegate absent and not represented by an alternate shall be cast by the majority of the delegates present from that Unit, each Unit voting its full strength. No Unit unrepresented shall cast a vote by proxy vote.
- Sec. 5 Each member of the Department Executive Committee shall be an ex-officio delegate to the Department Convention with full voting power. (81)
- Sec. 6 All Arizona Past Department Presidents in good standing in an Arizona Unit shall be life delegates to the Arizona Department Convention with vote. (81)
- Sec. 7 A quorum of the Department Convention shall consist of the elected delegates or alternates of fifty-one percent of the Units in the Department.
- Sec. 8 The following Section was added as the result of the COVID pandemic 2020- 2021.
In any future emergency situations, the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Arizona will operate as follows:
- (a) During any adversity, meetings of any Department Committee (including the Executive Committee) may be held electronically/virtually. If such a meeting is called, all rules of the Department of Arizona will apply.
 - (b) At such times of emergency, the Department may move away from the established Constitution and Bylaws in order to accomplish successful business. Proper documentation of all adjustments is required at all times.
 - (c) During emergency situations with the scope of the COVID pandemic, it may be necessary to cancel a Department Convention.
 - (1) If a Convention is canceled, and the emergency is ended within 3 months of that canceled Convention, according to Constitution Article VII Powers, Section 6, the Department Executive Committee has the option of calling an "Emergency Convention" to hold their election.
 - (2) If a Convention is canceled, the Department also has the option of waiting to hold a Convention until the next scheduled time set by the American Legion. (In the case of COVID, this was one year from the canceled Convention.)
 - (3) If a Convention is not held, according to Constitution Article VI Officers, Section 1, all officers shall hold office until their successors are elected. All Department Chairmen will remain in their appointed roles. Should any officer or chairman resign, they will be replaced by the procedure outlined elsewhere in this Constitution.

(4) If a Convention is canceled, the Department Executive Committee has the power to create and implement a Budget for the next fiscal year. Once approved by the Executive Committee, the new Budget will be distributed to all Officers, Chairmen, and Units by electronic means. The Executive Committee will record and address any objections sent in writing to the Department to items in the Budget. They will respond to any objection in writing. Any decision they make as to the objection is final as long as proper documentation is kept by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IX

Delegates to National Convention

- Sec. 1 The Department shall be entitled to seven delegates and seven alternates and one additional delegate and one additional alternate for each 1,200 or major fraction thereof (23) paid members whose dues have been received by the National Treasurer thirty days prior to the meeting of said Convention; provided however, that the retiring President, President elect, any member having a National Chairmanship, and the Executive Director of Operations shall be included in the elected delegates. Members of the National Executive Committee shall be delegates at large to the National Convention with vote to be exercised with their Department.
- Sec. 2 The Department Executive Director of Operations at the time of the National Convention shall automatically be a delegate to the National Convention, therefore need not be elected. (85)
- Sec. 3 Any member holding an Elected National Office shall automatically be a delegate to the National Convention, therefore, need not be elected as such.
- Sec. 4 The retiring (outgoing) Department President shall serve as Chairman of the National Convention arrangements and Chairman of the delegation.
- Sec. 5 Should a delegate, paid or unpaid, fail to attend the National Convention, the delegates in attendance shall elect a replacement delegate from the alternates in attendance. (89)
- Sec. 6 At the first Convention Delegation Caucus, the first order of business will be the ratification of alternates by the delegates in attendance. (89)
- Sec. 7 The Department Finance Committee shall include in its annual budget provision for the expense to the National Convention held following the Department Convention for the following people: the outgoing Department President; the incoming Department President; the Department Executive Director of Operations, and the Unit Member of the Year. See Policies and Procedures Page 23.

ARTICLE X

National Executive Committeeman

- Sec. 1 The Junior Past Department President shall automatically become National Executive Committeeman and the Department President shall become the Alternate National Executive Committeeman. Their duties shall be those prescribed by the National Organization.
- Sec. 2 The term of office of the National Executive Committeeman shall commence immediately following the adjournment of the National Convention next ensuing and shall end at the adjournment of the next succeeding National Convention.

ARTICLE XI

Rules

- Sec. 1 The rules of procedure of a Department Convention shall be those set forth in "Roberts Rules of Order, Newly Revised".

ARTICLE XII
Amendments

- Sec. 1 This Constitution may be amended at the Department Convention by a vote of two-thirds of the total authorized representatives thereat, provided that all proposed amendments shall be represented to each delegate, and shall be presented to the Convention body at a regular session of the convention at least twenty-four hours before the vote is taken thereon; and such amendments shall become operative upon adoption unless otherwise provided for in said resolution or amendments. Provided further, it may be amended by unanimous vote at any Convention without notice. (90)
- Sec. 2 Amendments to the National Constitution and Bylaws, adopted by National Convention shall automatically become effective in this Department.
- Sec. 3 Revision as to future conduct or as to future policy shall be embodied in a separate resolution for consideration and action of either the Department Executive Committee or the Department Convention body. Adopted resolutions to be made a part of the Policies and Procedures Book. (78)

BYLAWS of the

DEPARTMENT

Dues

- Sec. 1 The revenues of this Department shall be derived from annual dues plus a per capita from the Units to be used exclusively for a National Convention Delegates fund. Each annual Department Convention shall determine the amount of the Department dues and a per capita for each succeeding year.
- Sec. 2 The annual National dues, as determined by the National Convention each year, shall be collected by the Units and paid through Department Headquarters to the National Treasurer whenever they become due and payable. Dues may also be paid by the individual member online or by phone.

ARTICLE II

Committees

Sec. 1 Each District shall be privileged to adopt such Bylaws as it deems necessary, provided that they do not in any way conflict with the Department or National Constitution and Bylaws.

UNITS

Organization

Sec. 1 (a) The smallest administrative unit of the American Legion Auxiliary of the Department shall be termed a “Unit”. No Unit shall be received into this organization until it shall have applied for a charter. A Unit desiring a charter shall apply to the Department headquarters, and upon completion of all organizational requirements, the charter will be issued by the National President and Secretary whenever recommended by the Department President or Chairman of the Executive Committee, and shall be countersigned by the Department Secretary- Treasurer.

(b) The minimum number of members to charter a new unit shall be ten (10) senior members, with the exception of a Department Headquarters Unit that shall have no minimum membership requirements. (23)

Sec. 2 The officers of the Unit shall be President, one or more Vice Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, Historian, Chaplain and Sergeant-at-Arms, and such other officers and committees as may from time to time be authorized.

Sec. 3 (a) Each Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary shall be the judge of its own membership, subject to the restriction of the Constitution and Bylaws, except that no person who is a member of an organization which has for its aim the overthrow of the United States government by force or violence, or who subscribes to principles of any group opposed to our form of government, shall be eligible to become or remain a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

(b) A member failing to pay annual dues by January 31 of the current membership year shall be classed as delinquent and shall be suspended from all membership privileges.

A member deemed delinquent for failing to pay dues by December 31 of the current membership year shall be classified as expired. Such expired member may rejoin as an active member under the member's original join date without interruption of continuous years of membership, and membership privileges reinstated, by payment of all past dues.

A member deemed expired for failing to pay dues by December 31 of the current membership year may rejoin, with a new join date, at any time in the future by re-establishing eligibility and making application as a new member. Membership cards will reflect the most recent join date.

Member applications and member reinstatements may also require Unit action if a Unit's governing documents so state. (2025)

(c) Each Unit shall be required to make a complete report to the Department Headquarters weekly and shall remit with said report all Department and National dues collected and unreported. (2007)

- Sec. 4 All officers of the Unit shall be elected annually except the Secretary, who may be appointed by the President.
- Sec. 5 All Units shall adopt a Constitution prescribed by the Department of the American Legion Auxiliary.
- Sec. 6 Unit officers shall take office not later than the first meeting in October annually.
- Sec. 7 Unit Officers handling American Legion Auxiliary funds are bonded through the National organization, and pay a premium for this coverage annually. This premium is submitted to Department Headquarters. (2006)

ARTICLE II

Transfers

- Sec. 1 Any member in good standing wishing to transfer to another Unit must present to the new Unit their current membership card. Upon acceptance of the transfer by the new Unit, the Unit Officer will complete the transfer section on the Member Data Form. The new Unit Officer and member must sign and date the Member Data Form to be valid. The member shall then be entitled to active membership in said Unit. No dues shall be transferred. (2006)

STANDING RULES (Amended and Re-numbered 2026)

1. The American Legion Auxiliary Unit Guidebook shall be a guide for all references not covered in the Department Constitution and Bylaws, Standing Rules, and/or Policies and Procedures.
 2. Installing Officer at Department Convention shall be a Past Department President.
 3. No Chairman or Department Officer shall divulge the name of recipient or Unit winner or loser prior to their report on the Convention floor.
 4. All new plaques must be presented to the Department Executive Committee for approval. Typed rules for said plaque must accompany the request.
 5. The original name of all plaques must remain the same when replaced.
 6. Any Unit winner of a plaque must be responsible for the engraving and the return of the plaque prior to the opening of the next Convention session.
 7. Any Unit or District not returning a plaque by the close of the Convention at which they are expected to return it, will be fined $55. The fine will be payable at the time that the Unit or District pays any mandates for the new year, and be reflected on the mandate list distributed in the August monthly mailing. This fine is still payable and nonrefundable even if the plaque is returned to Department at a later date or time. If the fine is not paid by the due date set in the governing documents, the Unit or District will lose its vote and the right to win awards at the next ensuing Department Convention. (effective 2026-2027)
 8. All trophies shall be replaced by plaques.
