

Elena is ten and was born in Los Angeles. Her Mother was five months pregnant and sixteen years old when she flew to the US and overstayed her visa. When she discovers that Elena is a musical virtuoso, she sees that her decision to raise her in a foreign land was worth the risk. Then, while Elena is at school, her Mother is arrested and detained in an ICE immigration sweep. Now alone, Elena must navigate her own survival and secure the dream she's been working for, with or without her Mother.

