

MANSFIELD POLICE DEPARTMENT

Crime Victim Assistance

The Mansfield Police Department Victim Assistance Program exists to provide services to victims and family members with the goal of lessening the short and long-term trauma experienced as a direct result of their victimization. For this purpose, victims and their family members are provided with:

- Crisis intervention help
- Empathetic listening
- Guidance for resolving problems
- Information
- Reassurance
- Referrals to other social service agencies to provide additional support

Currently, the Victim Assistance Program provides services to victims of violent crime in Mansfield.

Services

- Assistance with Crime Victims' Compensation (CVC) applications
- Childcare (while statements are given to detectives)
- Death notification
- Guidance during crisis
- Information and referrals to local social service agencies
- Notification regarding eligibility for application to the Crime Victims' Compensation (CVC) fund
- On-scene counseling
- Personal advocacy/intervention
- Other services are assessed on a case by case basis by staff
