

INTRODUCING....

Textus Berneticus™

The New Testament for would-be Greek scholars

① { Iv θε βεινιγγ ωας θε ωορδ. Ανδ θε ωορδ
ωας ωιθ Γοδ, ανδ θε ωορδ ωας Γοδ.

②

Observe these key features:

1. English transliterated into Greek to fool all but the most attentive of professors.
2. Because of a difference in alphabets, some Greek letters must double for two English ones. This, however, will serve only to fool the novice (you can claim it's an obscure Spartan dialect for coded messages), and as the creator of Textus Berneticus once said many times, "Context is the key to understanding."
