

NEW! On tap from the makers of Textus Berneticus™, who brought you the proudly-abbreviated Bernetic Curriculum Review and Design™, nominated for the Protopos & Zopos award by faculty members for its contribution to academic excellence, we are proud to present our contribution to the fine arts programs of St. Louis:

Yes! Inspired by the "Keg 'o Composers Fest" at St. Catherine's Pub, we excitedly offer this superb soiree. Better than Pilsner and Prokofiev, malt and Mendelssohn; even better than suds and Stravinsky! Drawn from the vats of Springtime, it's the Biergarten-best of two German worlds: bitter brew and better Bach! And it's not just Bach, but Bernetic Bach™, condensed compositions that still express spirited song. The first concert (date to be determined):

An Orchestral Suite in 1 Movements
Minor Toccata and Fugue in D
Pasturized Sheep Graze Safely
I've Had Enough! [Our own Bernetic translation of Cantata 82]
 — All music performed by Branden and the Burgettes —

Bring your stein and your sweetie! To order tickets and reserve your table, we're still at:

BOCK AT THE SEM © 1993 BY BERNETNEBSCHRIFTEN, WHICH IS PRETTY PROUD THAT IT MADE IT THROUGH THIS WHOLE AD WITHOUT ANY DUMB "BACH IN THE USSR," "BACH AROUND THE CLOCK," OR "LET'S ALL DO THE HOPS" PUNS. (SO MUCH FOR PRIDE.) AS USUAL, WE TAKE NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR THIS AD OR ANYONE WHO TAKES IT SERIOUSLY, WHICH—LOOKING BACH—IS PROBABLY SOMETHING WE WOULDN'T HANDEL VERY WELL.
