

New from Bernetneßchriften™, creators of The Politically-Correct Lutheran Worship™. Our worship resources department proudly keeps a finger on the pulse of contemporary worship trends and has noted a desire to depart from Lutheran hymnody and make use of other styles and substances. Through careful research,* we eventually discovered the just really-neat hermeneutic by which this new music is measured:

"If it's in the Bible, it must be good for a worship song!"

(Now, seeing that other songbooks™ had already produced scads of fluffy-law songs and canticles for self-esteem, we wanted to ~~cash in~~ assist congregations with other parts of Scripture not yet set to music. It is why we first brought you The Imprecatory Songbook™, a selection of pieces found nowhere else. Still, the collection was incomplete.)

That's why we are proud to present:

The Unspeakable Worship Supplement™

Yes! Thrill to sing those parts of Scripture deemed inappropriate for public worship until now!

From the Tedium Laudamus section: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Genealogy Song (Mt. 1:2-15; Thrill to hear the children sing, "Amminadab begot Nahshon...") • Thus Israel's Tribes Were Numbered (A moving choral rendition of the first census of Israel, Num. 1) • Curtain Loops (Ex. 36; Spend some quality time harmonizing about tabernacle accoutrements) 	From the Tastay Importantay Non Est section: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Chorus of Forbidden Immoralities (Lev. 18) • A Hundred Extra Foreskins ("...brought David to King Saul...", I Sam. 18:27; with optional "cut them off" descant from Gal. 5:12) • The Litany of Unclean Discharges (Lev. 15) • The Ezekiel 23:20 Song!
