SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

Michael A. Guido, D.D.
Metter, Georgia

"Check on me" was a familiar request that we heard every night as our youngest son, Byron, began walking to his bedroom. Even though we took every precaution to make certain that our home was safe from any threat or danger, there was nothing more comforting than a nightly visit before the lights were turned off. Knowing that someone was near by and readily available if an emergency arose made falling asleep much easier.

The need to know that we are safe and secure is important to each of us. Stripes divide streets and signs give important instructions to drivers. A checklist must be completed before an aircraft can take flight. Warnings about possible problems surround us wherever we go or whatever we do. Sometimes they seem to get in the way of life. But warnings are important to warn us of impending dangers.

Psalm 91 reminds us of the unpredictability, yet the certainty, of dangers that await us. But it does not do so to frighten us, but to give the assurance that we are safe at all times and in all situations because of the faithfulness of our God. Listen as the Psalmist assures of the safety and security we have in God: "You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that strikes at midday...if you make the Most High your dwelling!"

How gracious of our God to assure us that we do not need to ask Him to "check on us" - He does it constantly.

BLESSED GOING & COMING

When you look at what the Lord said about your situation, you will not find anything to fear. He promised to never leave us. He promised to always be our help. He promised to supply every need. He gave us many precious promises to cling tightly to. We are not forsaken. We are not on our own. He is! I said, HE IS! Not He was, not will be, although He was and will be, but even in the very moment you read this... HE IS NOW! Present and accounted for. He's closer than the skin on your bones. Every time you breathe, that's His RUACH! He breathed the breath of life into a body made from dust, and man became alive. A living soul. That Spirit is proof that the Greater One is on the inside of you. You can't run and hide anywhere and escape His presence. Open His Word. Grab a tight hold onto those promises. You are going to be needing them. They are Light for the darkness. They are Truth to shut up the lies. They are Eternal. Forever settled in Heaven. His Kingdom has no lack, no limits, and nothing is dark about it. Seasons change. Ecclesiastes explains this well. Still, He remains every constant. We are blessed in and out of every season of life.

OH HOW GOOD! BY GARY TOOLE

Folks talk about how good things are now referring to stuff. Yet I have been around long enough to know and its so sad. They are just fooling themselves. I went to get my oil changed and as I sat in the lobby four people came in and no one spoke. They were mute or the cat had got there tongue but with eyes glued and heads bowed not in prayer they were in a hypnotic trance engrossed in high tech la la land via their cell and yet most folks including church goers (not true Christians) thinks thats ok. Not so! In their zombic (my made up word) hallucinate trance they sat. No normal response of looking around. The walking dead. No personal interaction with anyone. No friendly southern hellos, howdys, how are you nor good byes. Rather as they revolve back to their animalistic state they wonder why we are in the condition we are in. Oh so good! Not so good! Can you say amen?
